A WELCOME FROM HEAD COACH MIKE RILEY

Welcome to Memorial Stadium, home of the Huskers and site of the longest sellout streak in NCAA history.

At Nebraska, we thrive in the classroom, leading the nation in Academic All-Americans. We excel on the field, winning more games than any other team over the last 40, 50 and 60 years. We prepare players for professional careers as the only program to have multiple players selected in every NFL Draft of the common era (since 1967).

Your support makes all of it possible. On behalf of our student-athletes and staff, I thank you for being the greatest fans in college football. There truly is No Place Like Nebraska, and I am humbled and honored to coach at such an amazing institution.

Go Big Red!

FOOTBALL FAMILY

Family. It is a word that is synonymous with Nebraska Football. Nebraska lost a member of its family this summer, when senior punter Sam Foltz passed away in an automobile accident on July 23.

The latest success story of the Huskers' legendary walk-on program, Foltz embodied Nebraska's commitment to success on the field, in the classroom and in the community. On the field, he was the 2015 Big Ten Punter of the Year and his career average of 42.6 yards per punt ranked fifth all-time at Nebraska. In the classroom, Foltz was a five-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll, and he earned his degree in agronomy last May. Foltz was also active in the community, earning spots on both the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams in 2016, when he was also awarded a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award, which recognizes exceptional leadership, consistent and dedicated community service and positive influence on the team.

HEAD COACH MIKE RILEY

Mike Riley is one of the most respected coaches at any level of football. Riley has been a winner at every level during his four decades in the coaching profession. He captured a national title as a player at Alabama, won an NAIA championship as a coordinator at Linfield College and won two CFL Grey Cup titles in four seasons as the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Off the field, Riley has been widely praised for his role as a leader and teacher of young men.

WINNER

"I will say this: if you can win in Corvallis, Ore. - and Mike Riley did a lot of winning - you can probably win anywhere."

Big Ten Network analyst Tom Dienhart

- Riley's first win in 2016 will give him 100 wins as a FBS Head Coach. Riley will be the 10th active FBS head coach to win 100 games at a Power Five School.
- Riley has won championships at the NAIA, NCAA FBS and professional levels.
- Riley was a cornerback on Alabama's 1973 national championship team.
- In 1982, Riley was the defensive coordinator for a Linfield College team that went 12-0 and won the NAIA national championship.
- Riley coached the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to two Grey Cup titles in his four seasons.
- Riley has led his teams to a 7-2 record in bowl games, including Nebraska's 2015 Foster Farms Bowl victory, ranking fifth in NCAA history in bowl winning percentage (minimum eight bowls).
- Riley's teams have defeated 15 ranked teams in 15 seasons, including six wins vs. top-10 teams, and three victories over top-five foes. Last season, Nebraska defeated No. 7 Michigan State in Lincoln, handing the Spartans their only regular season loss.

OFFENSIVE GENIUS

"I think we throw this term around a lot, but he's as close to an offensive genius as there is."

National Championship Head Coach Mack Brown

- In Riley's first season at Nebraska, the Husker offense ranked in the top three in the Big Ten in passing, scoring and total offense.
- In 2003 at Oregon State, the Beavers became the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,500-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers.
- At Oregon State, Riley helped Sean Manion become the all-time leading passer in the history of the Pac-12 Conference.
- Riley is the only active coach who has had multiple players win the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver.
- Running back Jacquizz Rogers was the 2008 Pac-10 Offensive MVP, becoming the first freshman in conference history to win the award.
- Coached 2 of the 4 all-time leading passers in Pac-12 history.
- Coached 3 of the 8 all-time leading receivers in Pac-12 history.
- Coached 3 of the 12 all-time leading rushers in Pac-12 history.

ROLE MODEL

"I'd go so far to say that Riley is role-modeling what we should all be seeking for ourselves; he's well-liked, well-paid, respected, successful, secure and content."

ESPN.com columnist Ted Miller

- Riley is about more than winning, as he is driven to positively impact the lives of every student-athlete he coaches.
- Players and coaches alike routinely offer high praise to Riley.
- Former player Brandin Cooks: "Coach Riley really cares about his players on and off the field and wants nothing but the best for them in both areas."
- Former player and Michigan Head Coach Jim Harbaugh: "When you try to think of the top five people you know in this world, there's no doubt about it that Mike Riley is in that top five. He's just a tremendous person."
- Legendary Hall of Fame Coach John Robinson: "If you get to heaven and look around and Mike Riley's not there, you're in the wrong place."

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

Nebraska has long been known for having one of the nation's most explosive offenses. For decades, Nebraska boasted a nation-leading option rushing attack, and in the past decade the Husker offense has featured prolific passers and record-setting receivers, while continuing to produce elite running backs.

Coach Mike Riley and his staff have a history of producing one of the nation's most diversified offensive attacks. In Riley's first year at Nebraska, the Husker offense showed great versatility and explosiveness. Nebraska finished the season ranked in the top three in the Big Ten in passing, scoring and total offense.

- Eight of the top 10 single-season reception totals in Nebraska history have come in the past nine seasons.
- Quincy Enunwa caught a school-record 12 touchdown passes in 2013, including an NCAA record 99-yard touchdown against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. Enunwa had back-to-back 40-catch seasons in 2012 and 2013.

OREGON STATE

QUARTERBACKS

- Riley's quarterbacks at Oregon State produced two of the top six single-season passing totals in Pac-12 history, with Sean Mannion throwing for 4,662 in 2013 and Derek Anderson (pictured) passing for 4,058 in 2003.
- Both Mannion and Anderson rank in the top five in Pac-12 history in career passing yardage.
- Three of Riley's Oregon State quarterbacks are active in the NFL.
- Six of Oregon State's top 10 season passing totals were set under Riley, including the top four.
- Oregon State had seven 3,000-yard passers in Riley's 14 seasons as head coach.

RUNNING BACKS

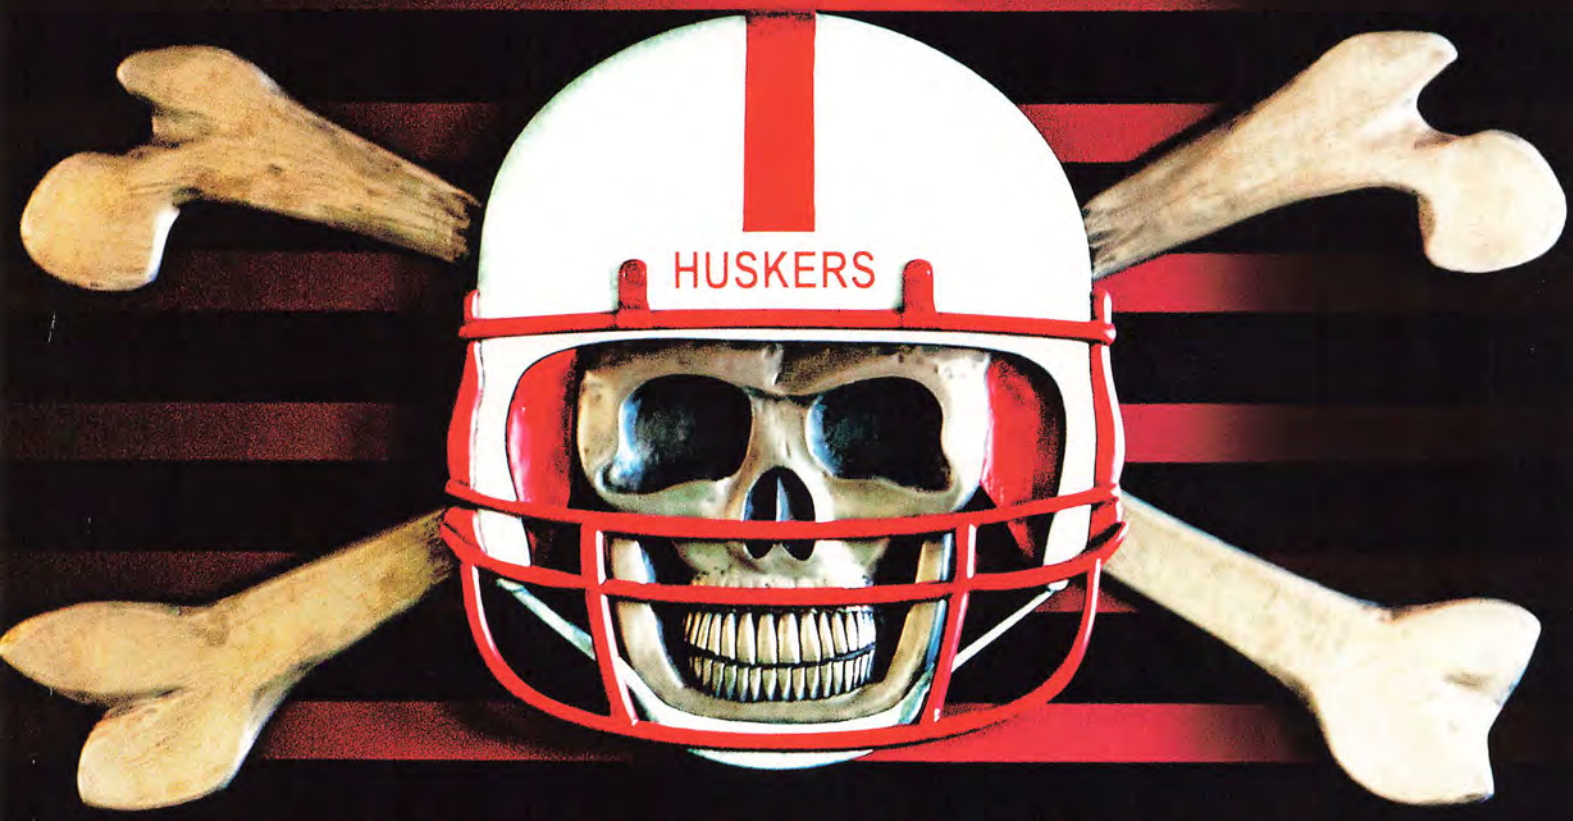

- Oregon State running backs Steven Jackson and Jacquizz Rodgers (pictured) both earned multiple All-America awards playing in Riley's offense.
- Rodgers was the 2008 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year, the first freshman in conference history to win the award.
- OSU running backs earned 10 all-conference awards in Riley's 14 seasons as head coach.
- All four 3,000-yard rushers in Oregon State history played under Riley.
- Oregon State running backs had eight 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Riley's OSU tenure.

RECEIVERS

- Oregon State receivers have captured two Biletnikoff Awards since 2005 - Mike Hass (pictured) in 2005 and Brandin Cooks in 2013. OSU was the only school in the country with two Biletnikoff winners since 2001.
- Three of the top 12 receptions leaders in Pac-12 history played under Riley at Oregon State.
- Two of the top three players in Pac-12 single-season receiving yardage played for Riley and his staff at OSU.
- Seven of the top eight receivers in school history were coached by Riley at Oregon State, including Markus Wheaton, Brandin Cooks, James Rodgers and Mike Hass, who all had at least 220 career receptions.
- Riley-coached receivers at OSU produced nine 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

BLACKSHIRTS

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

One of Nebraska's most well-known traditions is the Blackshirts, the common nickname for the Husker defense. The term originally dates back to the early 1960s and refers to the black jerseys that Nebraska's first-string defenders wear in practice.

With the return of the two-platoon system in college football in 1964, Head Coach Bob Devaney looked for a way to distinguish the defensive units on the practice field. Devaney sent an assistant coach to a local sporting goods store to find "contrast jerseys", a sleeveless pullover that went on top of the players' practice jerseys. While the top offensive unit practiced in red jerseys and the second-string offense worked in green pullovers, the first-string defense wore black and the second string wore contrasting gold jerseys.

The term quickly caught on then gained momentum during Monte Kiffin's tenure as defensive coordinator in the mid-1970s. The Blackshirts earned national recognition under Charlie McBride, who served as the Huskers' defensive coordinator from 1982 to 1999.

The Blackshirts celebrated their 50th season in 2013, and Head Coach Mike Riley and defensive coordinator Mark Banker have readily embraced the long-standing tradition.

BLACKSHIRT DOMINANCE

"We have a great (defensive) tradition at Nebraska. As a former Blackshirt, it is basically the sense of urgency you play with. That is what it means to be a Blackshirt. It is being able to trust the guy next to you. It is 11 guys getting to the football."

Trev Alberts, 1993 All-American and Butkus Award Winner

- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense 22 times since 1964.
- Nebraska has ranked among the top 10 in all four major defensive categories (rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense) on five occasions, including national title seasons in 1994, 1995 and 1997, and most recently in 2009.
- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense 23 times since 1964, including leading the nation in scoring defense in 1984 and 2009.
- Opponents have traditionally found moving the ball through the air difficult against the Blackshirts, as the Huskers have ranked in the top 10 in passing defense 18 times in the past five decades.
- In Mark Banker's first season as defensive coordinator, Nebraska's Blackshirts ranked ninth nationally in rush defense.

BLACKSHIRTS IN THE NFL

- Fifteen former Nebraska Blackshirts were on NFL rosters as of June 28, 2016.
- Nebraska has had 19 defensive linemen, 13 linebackers and 20 defensive backs drafted since 1997.
- Twenty-three Blackshirts have been taken in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft since 2000, including 2016 third-round picks Maliek Collins and Vincent Valentine.
- Recent Blackshirts Ndamukong Suh and Lavonte David have earned All-Pro honors during their respective NFL careers.
- Suh was the second overall selection in the 2010 NFL Draft and signed the richest contract ever for a defensive player in March of 2015.

BANKER DEFENSE

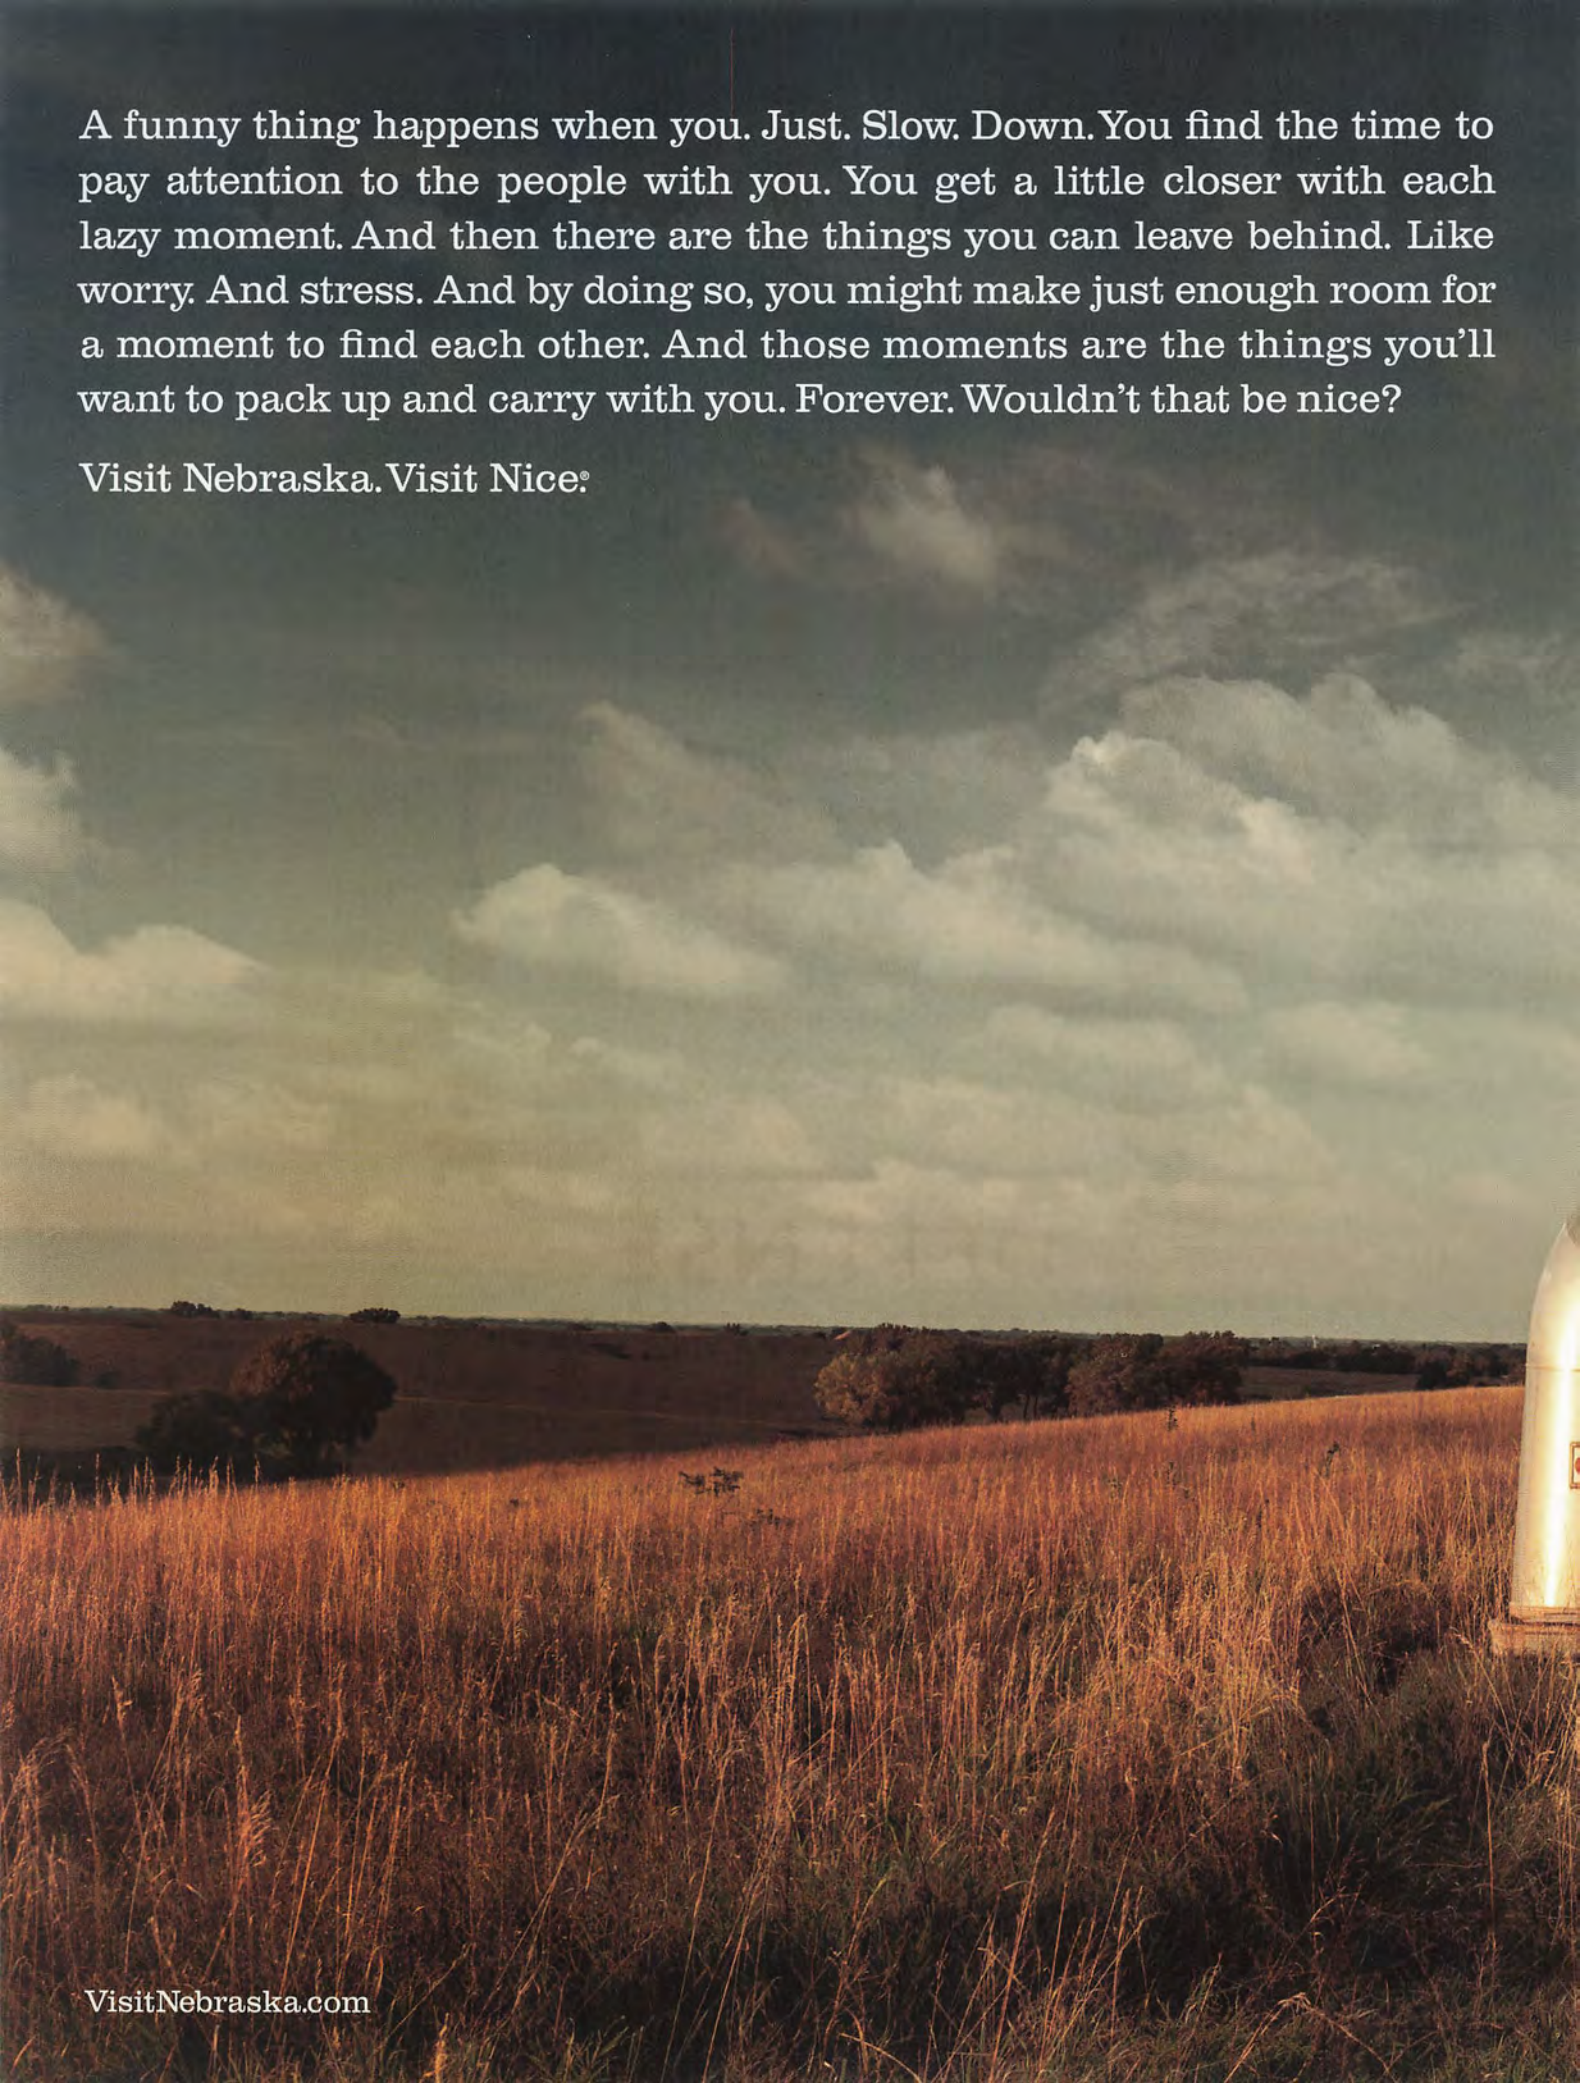

"To be a part of that Blackshirt unit you have to do things at a certain level to carry that distinction and have that responsibility. As players enter your program they should all aspire to be a part of that excellence and want that responsibility to continue that tradition."

Mark Banker, Defensive Coordinator

Nebraska defensive coordinator Mark Banker has a history of success at each stop in his coaching career.

- Nebraska's 2015 defense ranked ninth nationally in rushing defense and also ranked in the top 25 nationally in third-down defense.
- The 2007 Beaver defense led the nation in rushing defense, while ranking fourth in sacks and eighth in total defense.
- 19 Oregon State players coached by Banker have been chosen in the NFL Draft since 2004, including five Beaver defenders taken in the 2009 draft.

A funny thing happens when you. Just. Slow. Down. You find the time to pay attention to the people with you. You get a little closer with each lazy moment. And then there are the things you can leave behind. Like worry. And stress. And by doing so, you might make just enough room for a moment to find each other. And those moments are the things you'll want to pack up and carry with you. Forever. Wouldn't that be nice?

MEMORIAL STADIUM

"Cathedral of College Football"

Memorial Stadium is one of the most iconic venues in all of collegiate sports. The Home of the Huskers since 1923, Memorial Stadium is universally ranked among the best in college football. The historic stadium has continued to grow and improve with age. Nebraska has averaged more than 89,500 fans each of the past three seasons to rank in the top 11 nationally.

Nebraska has continued its unmatched sellout streak, packing Memorial Stadium for all 347 home games since 1962 (entering 2016). More than 26 million fans have passed through the gates of Memorial Stadium during the ongoing sellout streak.

GAME DAY ATMOSPHERE

Game days at Nebraska are unlike any in college football. Fans line the streets of Lincoln waiting to enter the "Sea of Red," while the marching band parades up Stadium Drive as thousands of red-clad fans look on. The Huskers emerge from the famous "Tunnel Walk" to the sound of "Sirius" and the fans stay at a frenzied pitch until the final play of the game when they graciously cheer for the opposing players as they exit the field.

The Tunnel Walk, which began in 1994, has become an integral part of Memorial Stadium's game-day experience. It was created as a way for fans to share in the excitement of the team emerging from the locker room, something only a few could do before HuskerVision's cameras and big screens came to Memorial Stadium. The sounds of the Alan Parsons Project's "Sirius," and the roar of 90,000 frenzied fans rock the stadium as the Huskers burst through the locker room doors and into the tunnel on their way to the Memorial Stadium FieldTurf. For as long as anyone can remember, the Huskers have touched a lucky horseshoe on their way from the locker room to the field. The horseshoe hangs above the door as Nebraska leaves the North Stadium.

"There are no words to describe the feeling of making a Tunnel Walk and winning a game in Memorial Stadium. The Tunnel Walk is the single-most exciting part of our games. The anticipation leading up to a football game and that fire you feel in your belly."

Kenny Bell, Nebraska's all-time leading receiver

"There is nothing like playing at Memorial Stadium. I don't care what other people say. Everything combined, the atmosphere, the whole town is here. When you are walking through there, you have tears in your eyes because of the sheer adrenaline rush. You can't control it and your eyes start watering and you start shaking."

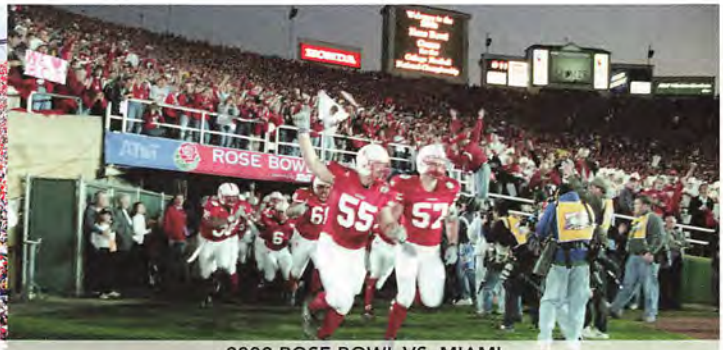

Spencer Long, Nebraska All-American and Academic All-American

THE BIG RED ON THE ROAD

When the Huskers hit the road, Nebraska's passionate fan base is sure to follow from coast to coast. NU's contingent of loyal fans have provided a "home away from home" and have given the Huskers unmatched support in road environments.

DEVOTED FANS

"This is truly a place where everybody is all in, all the time, and very, very loyal to their university. Everybody cares. I think that's my favorite word to describe Nebraska and everybody in it, is that they care. It's a unique place in that everybody cares, and it's really one thing. All the energy pours into Lincoln. That goes to every corner."

Nebraska fans are perhaps the most loyal in college football. The entire state follows the Huskers, along with a truly national fan base. Cornhusker fans have packed Memorial Stadium for every home game since 1962. In 2009, Nebraska celebrated its 300th consecutive home sellout, a NCAA record streak that stands at 347 games entering the 2016 season. Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in home attendance in two of the past three seasons, including a school-record average of 91,249 in 2014. In 2015, Nebraska had season ticket holders from 48 states.

Husker fans bring their show on the road as well. Red-clad Nebraska fans have traveled in the tens of thousands to bowl games and road games for decades. Opposing stadiums throughout the Big Ten began to see the invasion of Big Red fans in 2011.

Every entrance at Memorial Stadium welcomes Nebraska fans with the following phrase: "Through these gates pass the Greatest Fans in College Football."

"Win or lose, I walk out of that experience being one of the greatest experiences I've ever had at a sporting event because of the Nebraska fans. Honestly, I've never been around 90,000 fans that were louder, smarter and more respectful. They were classy. If we wanted a model of how sports should be, you go to Nebraska and experience that."

Merril Hoge, ESPN (following Nebraska vs. BYU game, Sept. 2015)

"No fan base has more passion or dedication. It is ALWAYS about the football at Nebraska. And that's what makes this place a college football Holy Land."

Tom Dienhart, Big Ten Network

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

The University of Nebraska provides its football student-athletes with every resource needed to be successful, including world-class facilities. All of the football facilities are conveniently located inside the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, within steps of Memorial Stadium.

LOCKER ROOM

Nebraska's locker room is located immediately adjacent to the strength training, athletic medicine and equipment room facilities. The locker room design allows players ample personal space and storage. Each solid maple locker has a unique ventilation system, and a personalized iPad, allowing student-athletes to stay connected while in the locker room.

HAWKS CHAMPIONSHIP CENTER

Connected to the Osborne Athletic Complex by an indoor skybridge, the 81,200-square foot Hawks Championship Center provides a full-sized indoor practice field with a FieldTurf playing surface identical to Memorial Stadium. The Huskers also have access to a second indoor facility, the Cook Pavilion, located adjacent the outdoor practice fields. The Hawks Championship Center installed a new field in the summer of 2016.

HISTORICAL DISPLAYS

Nebraska's rich football tradition is on display throughout the Osborne Athletic Complex and Memorial Stadium. Five national championship trophies are prominently displayed in the main lobby of the facility and the Cornhuskers' three Heisman winners and other major award winners are prominently featured.

ED AND JOYANNE GASS PRACTICE FACILITY

The Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Facility consists of two full-size playing fields, one with FieldTurf and the other with natural grass. The practice fields are connected to the Hawks Championship Center, giving Nebraska three practice fields for maximum efficiency during practice.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL PLAYERS' LOUNGE

Nebraska players have a dedicated lounge to enjoy during their down time. The comfortable lounge area features all the latest technology and includes a display to highlight Nebraska's rich NFL tradition.

HUSKERS IN THE NFL

Nebraska has one of the most impressive records of placing players in the National Football League. More than 300 Husker players have went on to NFL careers. Over the past two decades, Nebraska ranks second among Big Ten Conference schools in players selected in the NFL Draft.

As of July 1, Nebraska had 31 players on NFL rosters, including 12 players with four or more years of experience. Nebraska is represented on the rosters of 20 NFL teams.

HUSKER NFL FACTS

- Nebraska had four players selected in the 2016 NFL Draft. Nebraska is the only school in the Common Draft Era (since 1967) to have multiple players taken every year in the NFL Draft.
- Since 1997, Nebraska ranks second in the Big Ten Conference with 88 NFL draftees. In that time, 54 Blackshirt defenders have been picked in the Draft.
- Since 1990, Nebraska has had 28 defensive backs, 22 defensive linemen and 19 offensive lineman chosen in the NFL Draft.
- Nebraska had two former players selected to the 2016 Pro Bowl in Josh Brown (New York Giants) and Sam Koch (Baltimore Ravens).
- Nebraska leads the nation with 23 consecutive years with a player on a Super Bowl roster.
- Nebraska is regularly among the most represented schools at the NFL Scouting Combine. Nearly every NFL franchise regularly attends the Huskers' Pro Day in Lincoln (right).

BOWL TRADITION

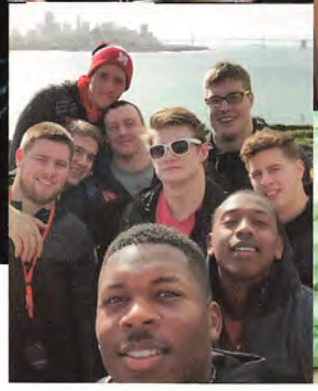

Nebraska has long been a regular fixture during the bowl season. The Cornhuskers' 52 bowl appearances rank third in college football history.

HUSKER BOWL FACTS

- Nebraska ranks in the top 10 nationally with 26 victories in bowl games.
- During the past 36 years, Nebraska has played in nine Orange Bowls, five Fiesta Bowls, two Sugar Bowls and one Rose Bowl.
- Nebraska has appeared in 15 different bowl games in its history. The Big Ten Conference has a diverse bowl lineup that includes affiliations with 12 different postseason locations from coast to coast.
- Nebraska Coach Mike Riley has an impressive 7-2 record in bowl games following last year's win over UCLA in the Foster Farms Bowl.

Nebraska took on UCLA in the 2015 Foster Farms Bowl. The Huskers took in the sights of San Francisco, including Alcatraz (above) and spent part of Christmas Day serving meals at St. Anthony's (far right). Tommy Armstrong Jr. was named MVP in the Huskers' 37-29 win.

HUSKER STUDENT-ATHLETES

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining athletic programs in the country. In 2015-16, Nebraska was one of only two collegiate programs in the nation to attract more than 1.3 million fans across its seven major team sports through the doors of its world-class facilities. This incredible interest and support enables Nebraska Athletics to invest in the student-athlete experience, as well as the overall game-day experience. Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes across 24 sports.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

More than 600 student-athletes, including wide receiver Stanley Morgan Jr., benefit not only from Nebraska's full cost of attendance scholarships and the MacBook Air program, but also the amazing facilities and staff support within the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex. Nebraska leads the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-America and NCAA Today's Top Ten awards.

ATHLETIC EXPERIENCE

Nebraska's strength and conditioning has long been at the forefront of college athletics. Under the direction of Boyd Epley, Nebraska has a staff of 12 strength coaches, including football strength coach Mark Philipp, who creates personalized strength and conditioning programs for Husker student-athletes.

LIFE SKILLS EXPERIENCE

The Husker Life Skills program allows student-athletes to continue their development and impact lives in the community. In 2015-16, Husker student-athletes, including running back Imani Cross pictured above at the Uplifting Athletes Road Race, completed more than 400 outreach activities while volunteering nearly 6,500 hours to impact approximately 25,000 people in Nebraska communities.

A LIFETIME EXPERIENCE

SPORTS NUTRITION
LEWIS TRAINING TABLE

Husker student-athletes have ample places to dine, as the Lewis Training Table is open extended hours for meals, while the North Stadium and Hendricks Training Complexes have areas for supplements for recovery after workouts or for snacks throughout the day. Nebraska's three full-time sports dietitians work with the Lewis Training Table manager and executive chef to plan and prepare meals to help maximize performance for student-athletes. Nebraska's individual nutritional counseling focuses on performance nutrition strategies, hydration, quality food choices and proper supplementation to help student-athletes reach their full potential.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE: CARING FOR HUSKERS

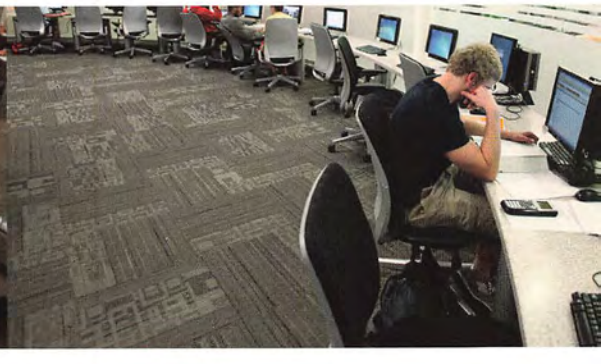

Nebraska's Athletic Medicine facilities rank among the nation's best, while one of the most experienced medical staffs in the nation care for all Husker student-athletes. Nebraska's medical team consists of 13 full-time athletic trainers and seven graduate assistant trainers, led by Associate Athletic Director Dr. Lonnie Albers (kneeling far left), Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Head Football Athletic Trainer Mark Mayer. A full staff of orthopaedists is also available to the Huskers, led by Dr. Richard Dugas (pictured back in white). The Husker Athletic Medicine team also includes a full-time, in-house athletic psychologist, and sports psychiatry consultants who work directly with Husker student-athletes.

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured the way member institutions and conferences, including the Big Ten, govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing unmatched benefits and support to student-athletes. However, this change in governance, and subsequent legislation, paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for student-athletes. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes across all sports have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Each student-athlete is offered an Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities (pictured top left).
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory, Nutrition and Dining Services (Training Table) and Sports Analytics.
- Nebraska created the first-known post-eligibility opportunity (PEO) program, where every student-athlete graduate who has exhausted their athletic eligibility has the opportunity to pursue (with Nebraska support) an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school.

THE ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

"You definitely get the total package of an experience from athletics, academics, community outreach and campus life. Everybody on staff within the program makes sure that the student-athletes reach their fullest potential and that is why there is no place like Nebraska."

Rex Burkhead, 2013 NFL draftee

The athletic academic unit, located in the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex, provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is composed of 14 full-time staff members and is certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) as meeting the standards established by the N4A.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 120 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and a select group of returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information, and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

The Herman Student Life Complex has two computer labs available for student-athletes. The Scott Technology Center features two tech tables for use on group computer projects and group study sessions. Additionally, each student-athlete is provided a laptop for use throughout their academic career at Nebraska.

Top: The main entrance to the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex in West Memorial Stadium is the gateway to student-athlete success at Nebraska. The complex also features tributes to each of Nebraska's nation-leading 325 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 17 NCAA Today's Top Ten Award winners.

LIFE SKILLS

Regarded as the premier and most comprehensive Life Skills program in college athletics, the Husker program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support through college and beyond to promote total person development and preparation for life after sports. Led by Senior Associate Athletic Director Keith Zimmer, five full-time staff members coordinate community involvement, career planning, effective communication strategies and much more to benefit Husker student-athletes.

In May of 2016, 20 Husker student-athlete, a Nebraska letterwinner alum and and four staff members participated in a service trip abroad to the Dominican Republic. The Huskers spent time with members of the community of Las Pajas to create a local sports court and create a mural at a community center.

The annual Nebraska Football Uplifting Athletes Road Race has raised more than $100,000 for pediatric brain cancer research in its four-year history. Nebraska football has been a national leader in outreach activities for decades.

PROACTIVE EDUCATION

The Life Skills team organizes several orientations aimed at acclimating student-athletes to college life. Additionally, all incoming student-athletes attend the fall semester Husker Life Seminar. This interactive class promotes responsible decision-making, personal brand, financial literacy, leadership, involvement and service.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills Coordinator who will arrange multiple individual meetings throughout the academic year aimed at enhancing personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT

Annually, Nebraska Life Skills organizes a Student-Athlete Career, Networking Night (pictured bottom right) and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and Husker Hire Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge, collectively giving more than 2,500 hours annually to impact thousands across the state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies (including the Sportsmanship 4 Life Pep Rally, pictured opposite page, bottom left), Make-A-Wish, NFL Play 60 and Husker Heroes.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with countless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Uplifting Athletes Chapter or Husker Distinction Council. UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for common goals. Nebraska Life Skills funds and coordinates an annual one-week service abroad trip that allows 20 student-athletes to work together toward a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2015-16, a record 65 Husker Football student-athletes were named to both the Tom Osborne and Brook Berringer Citizenship teams for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. A host of other recognition opportunities at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA levels that all reflect the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement also are available.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

Effective December 2015 and beyond, student-athletes who letter and graduate will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Life Skills program also is responsible for all Diversity and Inclusion initiatives for Husker Athletics. The first Diversity and Inclusion Summit occurred in January of 2016 and reached all student-athletes and staff members with a message of acceptance and unity.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL
HUSKER POWER
AGAIN FASTER

HUSKER POWER

The University of Nebraska has long been recognized as being the national leader in the area of strength and conditioning.

Nebraska was the first NCAA school to have a paid strength and conditioning coach, the first to lift weights in-season, the first to hold an official summer conditioning class for student-athletes and the first to offer a degree for strength coaching.

Husker Power is a nationally recognized brand and a source of pride for Nebraska Football.

Nebraska football student-athletes train throughout the year in the Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center, one of the nation's finest facilities of its kind. Built in 2006, the facility is one of the largest in the country and is a unique, state-of-the-art complex.

The facility gives Husker student-athletes a technological and strategic advantage by combining state-of-the-art strength training innovation with top-notch coaching and programming. The Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center contains a field turf agility track adjacent to the strength training equipment allowing for high impact strength programming on different dynamic surfaces.

The strength and conditioning staff consists of five full-time staff members, led by Head Football Strength Coach Mark Philipp. The staff works with Husker football student-athletes teaching proper strength and conditioning techniques, allowing them to reach their maximum potential.

The latest upgrade to the Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center took place in the summer of 2015. The facelift nearly doubled the number of lifting platforms and included new equipment and new apparel. The layout changes allow the strength staff to redesign and implement a program that accommodates each individual athlete with the most beneficial exercises in an efficient period of time.

Components considered in the new weight room layout included accommodating a larger number of athletes per group and the time and space required to enhance performance and reduce the risk of injury.

"This incredible facility helped me earn all the honors I was so privileged to receive while I was at Nebraska...There is not a better strength and conditioning program in the country."

Ndamukong Suh, Nebraska All-American (2009)

NAPL: INTEGRATING SPORT

The Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) is recognized as the first performance research center within a collegiate department of athletics. The NAPL features a talented, multidisciplinary team that includes a full-time director and endocrinology lab director, two research post-doctoral fellows and a research analyst.

Located in East Memorial Stadium adjacent to UNL's Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3), the NAPL collaborates with Nebraska's Strength and Conditioning team, Husker Nutrition staff, Nebraska's Athletic Medicine staff and sports programs to offer the highest level of integration of sport performance technologies and systems.

The NAPL is made up of the Mark and Debra Classen Cardio Area, James and Karen Linder Dynamic Performance Center, Markin Family Collaborative Center, Thayer Family Athletic Research Lab and cutting-edge equipment donated by the Suzanne and Walter Scott Foundation. The main entrance for the research facilities is located in the Janet and Gerard Keating Family Concourse.

Focused on student-athlete health, safety and welfare, the NAPL is a world-leading research and performance facility focusing on the performance enhancement, safety and long-term well-being of student-athletes.

The NAPL includes simulated athletic environments for studying performance, incorporating a camera system to track human movement in 3D, force plates to measure ground reaction forces and state-of-the-art technology to assess physiological biomarkers, investigate exercise cardiovascular capacity and measure body composition.

All 24 Husker athletic programs conduct performance testing at NAPL. Force plates and motion capture videos (3D) are used to measure athletes in their development through testing results to create an athletic performance index for each athlete.

The NAPL uses IDexa as an advanced, accurate and reliable method to analyze and measure body composition.

The focus of the Thayer Family Athletic Research Lab is recovery from competition by measuring salivary biomarkers 24 hours prior to and 24 hours post-competition.

Collaborative research projects are conducted in conjunction with the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3), including concussion prevention, treatment and return to play.

PERFORMANCE, RESEARCH

Researchers in the Thayer Family Athletic Research Lab measure salivary biomarkers to focus on recovery.

Nebraska's Strength and Conditioning team utilizes NAPL facilities and equipment to optimize performance testing across all 24 Husker sports.

Nebraska's Nutrition staff led by Lindsey Remmers utilizes NAPL technology for body composition testing.

Equipment, technology, researchers and student-athletes come together in the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory to put the Huskers on the cutting edge of sport science.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

INNOVATION CAMPUS

Nebraska Innovation Campus (NIC), which is designed to facilitate new and more in-depth partnership with UNL and the private sector, opened its first buildings in the summer of 2014. The Food Innovation Center and Greenhouse Innovation Center both opened in 2015.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.
- Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 78 universities in the nation according to the 2014 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 25.
- The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,600 Academic All-Americans, including 48 honorees during the 2015-16 academic year.
- Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

- Big Ten schools have won at least seven national championships in seven of the last eight academic years.
- In the last three full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 23 team national championships in 14 different sports.
- Over the last 10 full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have won 77 team national titles in 23 different sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

- The Big Ten will administer over $200 million in direct financial support to more than 9,500 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.
- The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse the last three years.
- The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.
- Almost 1,400 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including nearly 300 gold. Heading into the 2016 Olympic Games, more than 100 current or former students at current Big Ten institutions were named to Olympic teams.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

- The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.
- Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference leads the nation in attendance for men's basketball, hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

- Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.
- Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.

Dear Big Ten Fans:

For more than 120 years, the Big Ten has been committed to excellence in both academics and athletics and we appreciate your continued support. With a champion set to be crowned this week, we look forward to providing our students, coaches and fans with a unique and memorable experience.

The benefits of competing in intercollegiate athletics are deep-rooted. Students are provided an outstanding education and learn lifelong lessons in ethics and integrity, sacrifice and perseverance.

The Big Ten remains committed to supporting broad-based programs, with more than 9,500 students learning and competing on 350 teams in 42 different sports. The conference has produced at least seven national titles in seven of the last eight years, and seen more than 1,600 students earn Academic All-America distinction.

Big Ten students enter the future with everything they need to become influential leaders. Today's participants have learned to compete on the same principles as those that came before them, including the highest level of citizenship and sportsmanship. We encourage our fans to follow their lead. Cheer for your team, revel in victory and be gracious in defeat.

Students competing this week will contend for a championship, and relish an experience that will last a lifetime. We invite you to help them reach their goal both today, and in all of their future aspirations.

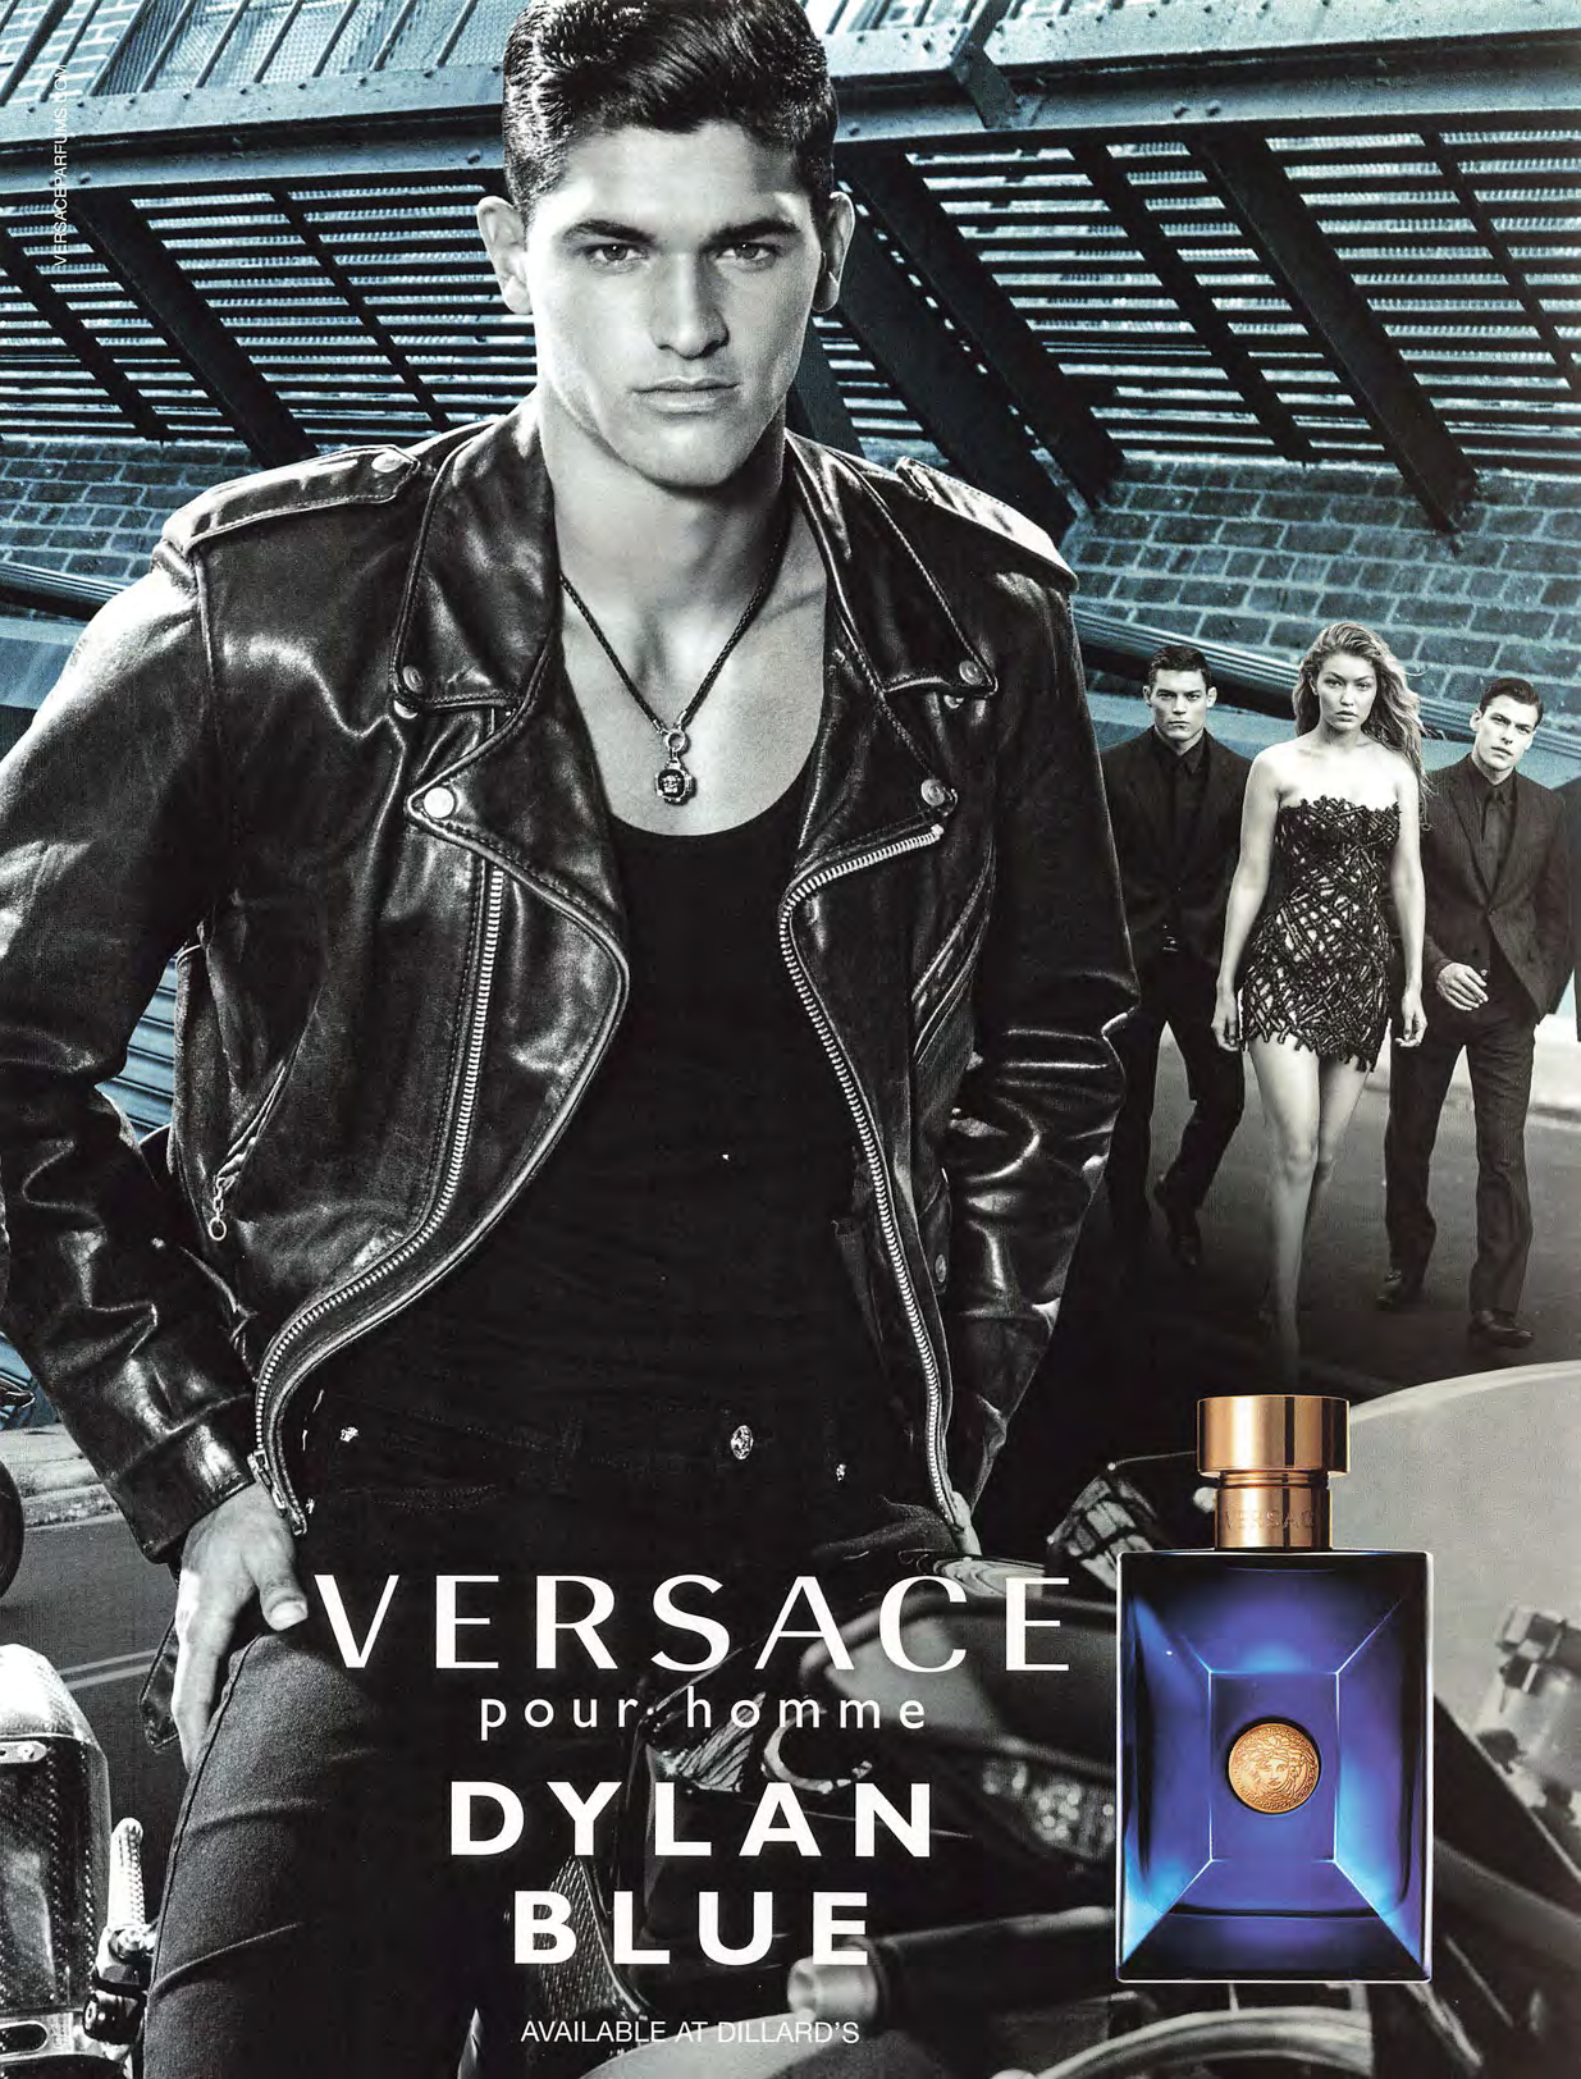

Sincerely,

James E. Delany
Big Ten Commissioner

- Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.
- Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.
- Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.
- Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.
- Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.
- Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, nearly 1,400 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.
- BTN is in more than 60 million homes across the United States and Canada. BTN2Go is BTN's digital extension, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus within BTN2Go streams hundreds of additional events each season.

RANDY YORK'S N-SIDER

HUSKERS' HIGH ENERGY, GOOD VIBES ATTRACTING TALENT

by Randy York

The year before Danny Langsdorf moved to Nebraska to reconnect with Mike Riley, he was helping Eli Manning sharpen his focus and strengthen his stats with the New York Giants. Two years later, Langsdorf is a force that's helping to recruit talented offensive weapons and yes, that includes some of the nation's finest wide receivers.

That might seem counter intuitive to a program with deep roots in power football, but it's a wide open opportunity for one of college football's bluebloods to attract some of the best high school wide receivers in America.

While some programs in the Midwest may ask why, Nebraska asks why not?

"We've had good energy in our recruiting," Langsdorf said, "so we've been able to get kids to visit our campus, and they're more than impressed. There's a great vibe about Nebraska, about the football program and about the school and the city we live in.

"Lincoln is an underrated place," Langsdorf said. "There's a lot of tradition and history here, but it was underrated even for me. I'd never been close to Lincoln or Omaha, but I've been nothing but impressed with the people, the community, the vibe of the Haymarket Area and the downtown Pinnacle Bank Arena.

"The game day atmosphere here is better than anywhere I've ever been," said Langsdorf, who has coached on the West Coast and the East Coast. "When kids come here and experience Nebraska, there's just good energy about everything. That's why we're trying to get kids on campus, so they can see what we have to offer. When we get kids on campus to experience what we have, it opens eyes and becomes a big selling point."

What's behind the magnetic attraction that appeals to nationally prominent recruits?

Jordan Westerkamp, who is on pace to become Nebraska's all-time leading receiver this season, has had several memorable catches during his career, including a game-winning Hail Mary reception vs. Northwestern in 2013. But his behind-the-back sideline catch against Florida Atlantic in 2014 (pictured) helped him win an ESPN Sports Science Newton Award for "Outstanding Reaction."

HUSKER HISTORY: WIDE RECEIVERS

POSITION QUICK FACTS

- 4 First-Team All-Americans
- 5 Academic All-Americans
- 1 Heisman Trophy Winner
- 1 College Football Hall of Fame Member
- 25 NFL Draft Picks

POSITION HIGHLIGHTS

- Johnny Rodgers became NU's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1972
- Bernie Scherer was selected in the third round of the 1936 NFL Draft, becoming the first Husker ever selected in the NFL Draft
- Irving Fryar was the No. 1 overall pick in the 1984 NFL Draft, becoming just the second receiver to be taken with the No. 1 pick
- Fryar was a five-time Pro Bowler, and he ranks in the top 25 in NFL history in receptions (25th, 851) and receiving yards (19th, 12,785).

"Our brand is pretty broad because we're right in the center of the country," Langsdorf said, "so it's easy to work the West Coast and East Coast. We're doing a good job of spreading ourselves out, whether we're in California or right here close to Lincoln.

"We believe every potential recruit has a chance to be a good contributor," Langsdorf said. "If that translates to the NFL, great. Our style depends on how we want to play."

Nebraska's heavy emphasis on academic performance is an important part of the recruiting process. "Obviously, we have to win games but I think one piece that's really intriguing to kids is how well we support the academic process and the life skills they need to succeed beyond football," Langsdorf said.

All that Nebraska has to offer helped the Huskers secure one of the best group of receivers in school history in the 2016 senior class.

"Jordan Westerkamp is really special," Langsdorf said. "He's a team captain who's well respected by his teammates. He's really comfortable about his route running and ability to catch the ball and make big plays."

Westerkamp is a very humble kid. "You don't even know about all the records he'll hold," Langsdorf said. "He just comes to practice every day with great work ethic. It's encouraging to see a kid who's not entitled. He's just really humble.

"This is a talented group. We have a lot of guys with experience back," Langsdorf said. "There's great playmaking ability with Jordan, Brandon Reilly and Alonzo Moore. We have De'Mornay Pierson-El back in the fold. He had a good start to his career, then had some injury problems. Getting De'Mornay back and healthy and playing like he is, it's exciting to see how we can use him."

The Huskers also have "some new faces we're going to be using down the road," Langsdorf said, referencing JD Spielman, Bryan Reimers and Gabe Rahn. "We're deep in that group. Each one can bring something a little different. We have guys with speed. Some are a little better route runners and some are better deep ball catchers. Some are more suited for intermediate stuff. There's a lot of flexibility in the position."

Langsdorf describes Pierson-El as an exciting player, especially in the return game. "He's fun to watch and really has high hopes for his career," Langsdorf said. He's really worked hard in rehab, has a great attitude and bounced back. He looks healthy and has a burning desire to play.

"Having him back in the fold has been fun, and I love that he's been able to bounce back," Langsdorf said. "Some kids are unable to do that. It's hard to come back, but he's ahead of schedule and that speaks to his character and work ethic. We're excited to have him. He's done everything he can to get ahead. With Alonzo, we have depth there, so we don't have to overload and push him too fast. We can ease him in there.

"We're trying to upgrade as much as we can," Langsdorf said. "If you look at what we're doing and who we have to do it with, we're going to continue to recruit the very best. We want to blossom and have a lot of contributors who can burst onto the scene. We've done a good job recruiting and have developed depth. We want to do that with every position and continue to build and recruit the high-caliber players with high-caliber character. If we can do that, we'll have a really strong and talented team."

THE OREGON DUCKS AT A GLANCE

- Oregon is 2-0 this season and is ranked 22nd in this week's AP poll.
- The Ducks are one of only four FBS team to rank in the top 25 nationally in both passing offense (25th) and rushing offense (15th).
- Oregon is averaging more than 275 passing and rushing yards per game.
- The Ducks have score more than 40 points in five straight games dating back to last season and seven of their last eight games overall.
- Defensively, Oregon is allowing 390 yards and 27 points per game
- Oregon is 9-1 on the road since the start of the 2014 season, with the lone loss coming to a Big Ten team (31-28 at Michigan State in 2015).

THREE DUCKS TO WATCH

QB Dakota Prukop

- Is averaging 328.5 yards of total offense per game, including 301.0 passing yards per game.
- Completed 21-of-31 passes for 331 yards and three TDs vs. Virginia.
- Ranks among the top 30 nationally in passing efficiency (11th), passing touchdowns (11th), passing yards (17th) and completion percentage (23rd).

LB Troy Dye

- First true freshman to start at linebacker for Oregon in over 38 years.
- Leads the team with 17 tackles, eight more than any other Duck.
- Also leads Oregon with 4.5 TFLs and ranks second with 1.0 sack.

RB Royce Freeman

- 2015 second-team All-American ranks fifth nationally among all FBS players with 3,495 career rushing yards.
- Ranks 3rd nationally in yards per carry (9.2) in 2016, seventh in rushing yards (294) and seventh in rushing touchdowns (4th).
- Ran for 207 yards and two touchdowns on only 21 carries vs. Virginia.

SERIES HISTORY

- Nebraska leads the all-time series, 5-1, including a 4-1 edge in Lincoln.
- The teams last met in 1986 when the Huskers won 48-14 in Lincoln.
- Nebraska has won four straight in the series, outscoring Oregon 206-28 during the winning streak (average score of 52-7).
- The 1953 season opener between Nebraska and Oregon in Lincoln marked NU's first nationally televised game and was the first NCAA-regulated football game telecast, according to the Lincoln Journal Star.

ABOUT OREGON FOOTBALL

- Oregon owns an all-time record of 637-481-46.
- The Ducks have won 11 conference titles, most recently winning the 2014 Pac-12 title en route to a runner-up finish in the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Game.
- In the five years the Pac-12 Conference has used a division format, Oregon has won or tied for its division championship four times
- Oregon has appeared in 30 bowl games, posting a 13-17 record.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

In 1859, Congress required Oregon's founders to establish a public university and in October of 1876, 155 students showed up for the first day of classes at the University of Oregon. Today, Oregon is a member of the prestigious Association of American Universities—one of only 36 public universities committed to scientific exploration and interdisciplinary research. Oregon offers more than 75 majors and has produced seven governors, two Nobel Prize winners, 13 Pulitzer Prize winners, 19 Rhodes Scholars and six NFL Hall of Famers.

TODAY'S EVENTS

- 350th Consecutive Sellout
- 2016 Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame Class (bios on page 92)

HUSKER SPOTLIGHT

Alonzo Moore has started his senior season with back-to-back career games. In the season opener against Fresno State, Moore posted a career-high 92 receiving yards fueled by a career-best 57-yard touchdown reception. Moore bettered those marks last week against Wyoming, finishing with three catches for a career-high 109 yards, including a career-long 63-yard touchdown reception. Moore enters today's game ranked fourth nationally with an average of 33.5 yards per reception.

350

Today marks the NCAA-record 350th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers own a 298-51 record since the streak began with a 16-7 loss to Missouri on Nov. 3, 1962.

Nebraska takes on its first ranked opponent of the season this afternoon, when the Huskers face No. 22 Oregon in the final non-conference game of the season for both teams.

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

- Through two games, Nebraska has outscored its opponents 64-10 in the second half, including 50-0 in the fourth quarter.
- Nebraska has recorded seven interceptions through two games this season. Last Saturday against Wyoming, the Huskers picked off five passes, the program's highest total since 2010.
- Tommy Armstrong Jr. threw for 377 yards last week vs. Wyoming, four shy of his career high. He added three touchdown passes and his third touchdown pass was the 57th of his career, a new Nebraska record.
- Jordan Westerkamp caught four passes for 109 yards against Wyoming to push his total to 2,059 career receiving yards. He is only the fourth Husker to reach 2,000 career receiving yards, joining Kenny Bell (2,689), Johnny Rodgers (2,479) and Nate Swift (2,476).
- Nathan Gerry made his season debut last Saturday and finished with two interceptions and seven tackles. He moved into fourth place on Nebraska's career interception chart (11) and became only the fifth Husker defensive back to record 200 career tackles (206).

FIVE THINGS TO WATCH

- Nebraska is looking for its first home win over a ranked Pac-12 opponent since a 55-7 win over No. 9 Washington on Sept. 26, 1998.
- The Huskers have won 17 consecutive games when winning the turnover battle, including both games this season. Nebraska is 5-0 under Mike Riley when having an advantage in turnovers. The last time the Huskers lost when winning the turnover battle was a 28-25 setback to Northwestern on Nov. 5, 2011.
- Tommy Armstrong Jr. needs 83 passing yards to surpass Taylor Martinez (7,258) and become Nebraska's all-time leading passer.
- Jordan Westerkamp has caught a pass in 28 consecutive games, the third-longest streak in NU history.
- Drew Brown has made 12 consecutive field goals, which ties for the third-longest streak in school history.

NOTING CONSECUTIVE SELLOUT NO. 350

Nebraska celebrates another milestone in its NCAA-record sellout streak today, as the Huskers mark consecutive sellout No. 350.

- Nebraska's 350-game sellout streak dates back to Nov. 3, 1962. Notre Dame boasts the second longest sellout streak in NCAA history. The Fighting Irish have sold out 250 consecutive games dating back to Sept. 28, 1974.
- Overall attendance during the sellout streak totals 26,530,065.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

TY BETKA

WIDE RECEIVER • SUPERIOR, NEB.

Ty Betka began his collegiate career at Drake before transferring to Nebraska. He participated in a walk-on tryout in 2014 and was asked to join the team following the Huskers' annual open tryout. A member of arguably the deepest receiving corps in school history, Betka was a 10-time letterwinner for Superior High School. Betka was named to the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams in 2016 for his commitment to community service. A political science major, Betka is on track to earn his degree in December.

Who has influenced your football career?
"Well the biggest influence on my football career has probably been the Rodgers brothers (James and Jacquizz) at Oregon State who played there, and then Tyrann Mathieu at LSU and Trindon Holliday. Those are just other shorter stature players that are really fast and quick."

What is the best thing about Nebraska?
"Probably the fans. No matter what, they're invested. And that's why they are the greatest fans in college football. They're knowledgeable and they know and they care. Just like anything, you have a couple of rotten ones you know, but at the end of the day, they're going to love us no matter what."

What is the best memory as a Husker?
"Probably my first Spring Game last year. Just running out of the tunnel to 72,000 fans for the first time, ready to play in a live game and getting to catch a couple balls in front of them. Every time I watched a Husker game, I just thought that was going to be me someday, and it finally was."

What are your passions outside of football?
"Well right now I'm working at a church and also for a senator. So my relationship with Christ is the most important thing to me and politics, and that's my major political science. So, the two things I love to talk about most are Jesus and politics."

What interested you in politics?
"When I was a senior in high school I visited Washington, D.C. and just loved the city. That's when I wanted to be a political science major. I'd love to move out there and start working there."

What advice would you give your 10-year old self?
"Just stay on the straight and narrow and work hard. I don't know, probably just work harder in school because a lot of times I think I took that for granted and focused on sports more. Which, I still made it here but I know a lot of times kids don't make it because they have the skill, but not the academics. So I kind of wish I would've emphasized that more."

What are three things people would be surprised to know about you?
1) "The first sport I ever did was gymnastics until I was 10. I won state in gymnastics two years in a row when I was really little."

2) "I love the military. I would consider going to the military after I'm done here."

3) "I'm an uncle to eight kids."

If you could have one superpower, which would you choose?
"[The ability] to teleport. I've thought about this one a lot. Teleport for sure because you can teleport anywhere you want, even if you were playing a sport.

What is your favorite food?
"Bacon. That's something everyone will know about me, too."

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

ALONZO MOORE

WIDE RECEIVER • WINNFIELD, LA.

Alonzo Moore has set career high in receiving yards in each of the first two games this season (92 vs. Fresno State and 109 vs. Wyoming). Through two games, Moore leads Nebraska with six catches and 201 receiving yards. In his career, Moore has totaled 46 receptions for 807 yards and eight touchdowns while averaging an impressive 17.5 yards per catch. Off the field, Moore earned his degree in sociology in August. Moore is also an active member of the community, and he earned a spot on the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams in 2016.

Who has had the biggest influence on your career?
"I would say my mom, my dad, Dr. Garrison, my family friends and also my best friends Derrell and Trey. They always tell me to keep my head up and stay focused."

What was your first reaction when you were being recruited by Nebraska?
"I had never heard of the place, so I was saying, 'where is that'? But then I came up here and found out what Nebraska was all about, and I liked it."

Now that you are a Husker, what is the best thing about Nebraska?
"Just coming here and meeting so many people, building a relationship with my teammates, my friends outside of football and right now, being here on Saturdays."

What is the best memory of your Husker career?
"I would say my best memory is Michigan State [last year] and winning that game. It was pretty dope."

If you wanted to be compared to one football player, who would you choose and why?
"Me, I never compare myself to anyone, but if it was one person I would love to be compared to Brandon Reilly [laughing, as Brandon was standing next to him]."

What are your passions outside of football?
"I'm big into dirt biking, or four-wheeling, just getting muddy."

When you are done playing football, what are your future career plans?
"You know, whatever God has for me. One thing is to take my son and travel around the world. Take my son and my girlfriend and just travel around the world."

If you could go back and give your 10-year old self advice, what advice would you give?
"Stay out of trouble and listen the first time."

Who do you think is the funniest person on the team?
"We just got done talking about this, and I would say Keyan Williams."

BRANDON REILLY

WIDE RECEIVER • LINCOLN, NEB.

Lincoln native Brandon Reilly has been one of the top big-play receivers in Husker history. Last year, Reilly's 18.9-yard per catch average led the Big Ten, ranked sixth nationally and was the third-best mark in school history. Reilly has caught 51 passes in his career for 915 yards. He is on pace to become the 24th Husker to total 1,000 career receiving yards. Off the field, Reilly is a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and is a seven-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Reilly is a marketing/management major on track to graduate in December.

When did you start playing football and why did you want to play?
"I played early on in 4th grade, then stopped and started playing again in high school. All of my friends played football which is why I was interested."

What is your earliest football memory?
"The first varsity high school game I played in was a pretty neat experience."

Who have had the biggest influence on your football career?
"My parents. They didn't pressure me to play football, but when I said I wanted to pursue football, they encouraged me and helped me along the way."

What is the best memory of your Husker career?
"The Michigan State game last year [Reilly caught the game-winning 30-yard touchdown pass in the final seconds of the Huskers' 39-38 upset of the No. 6 Spartans]."

What are your passions outside of football?
"Anything that involves hanging out with my friends. We go bowling, play pool, golf, things like that. Anything to stay busy with my friends."

When you are done playing football, what are your future career plans?
"I'm going to see how far football takes me and after that, probably something in the sports marketing world. But I'm not exactly sure yet."

If you could go back and give your 10-year old self advice, what advice would you give?
"Don't be scared to do the extra little things. Stay after at practice even if you want to do something with your friends. Meet up with them later and do what's important to you right away."

What are three things people would be surprised to know about you?
1) "All I played growing up was hockey."
2) "I'm a good golfer."
3) "I'm pretty good at playing pool."

Favorite Food?
"Crab legs."

Favorite NFL team?
"Kansas City Chiefs."

Funniest teammate?
"Alonzo Moore."

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

JORDAN WESTERKAMP

WIDE RECEIVER • LOMBARD, ILL.

One of the most prolific receivers in school history, Jordan Westerkamp is threatening several Nebraska records. Entering today's game, Westerkamp ranks fourth in NU history with 2,059 career receiving yards, and he is sixth with 134 career receptions. Westerkamp has also caught a pass in 28 consecutive games, the third-longest streak in school history. Westerkamp was an All-Big Ten selection in 2015, when he set a Nebraska receiver record with 65 catches. Off the field, Westerkamp is a two-time academic All-Big Ten honoree and a four-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. A management major on track to graduate in December, Westerkamp is also a two-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams.

When did you start playing football and why did you start?
"I started playing football when I was in 3rd grade, and I just played it because a lot of my family members played and my dad played, so it was just kind of a run-in-the-family type deal."

What is your earliest football memory?
"My first touchdown ever. I was a tight end, and I think it was like 3rd or 4th grade, but I caught a little pop pass and ran for 80 yards and my pads were huge on me, and I could barely move. But my grandpa has it on video and it's funny to go back and watch that."

Who has been the biggest influence on your football career and how have they impacted your journey to Nebraska?
"Probably my dad just because he's been my receiver coach all throughout grade school and my receiver coach in high school, and he's taught me so much about the game and how to respect the game and be humble. I wouldn't be where I am today without him."

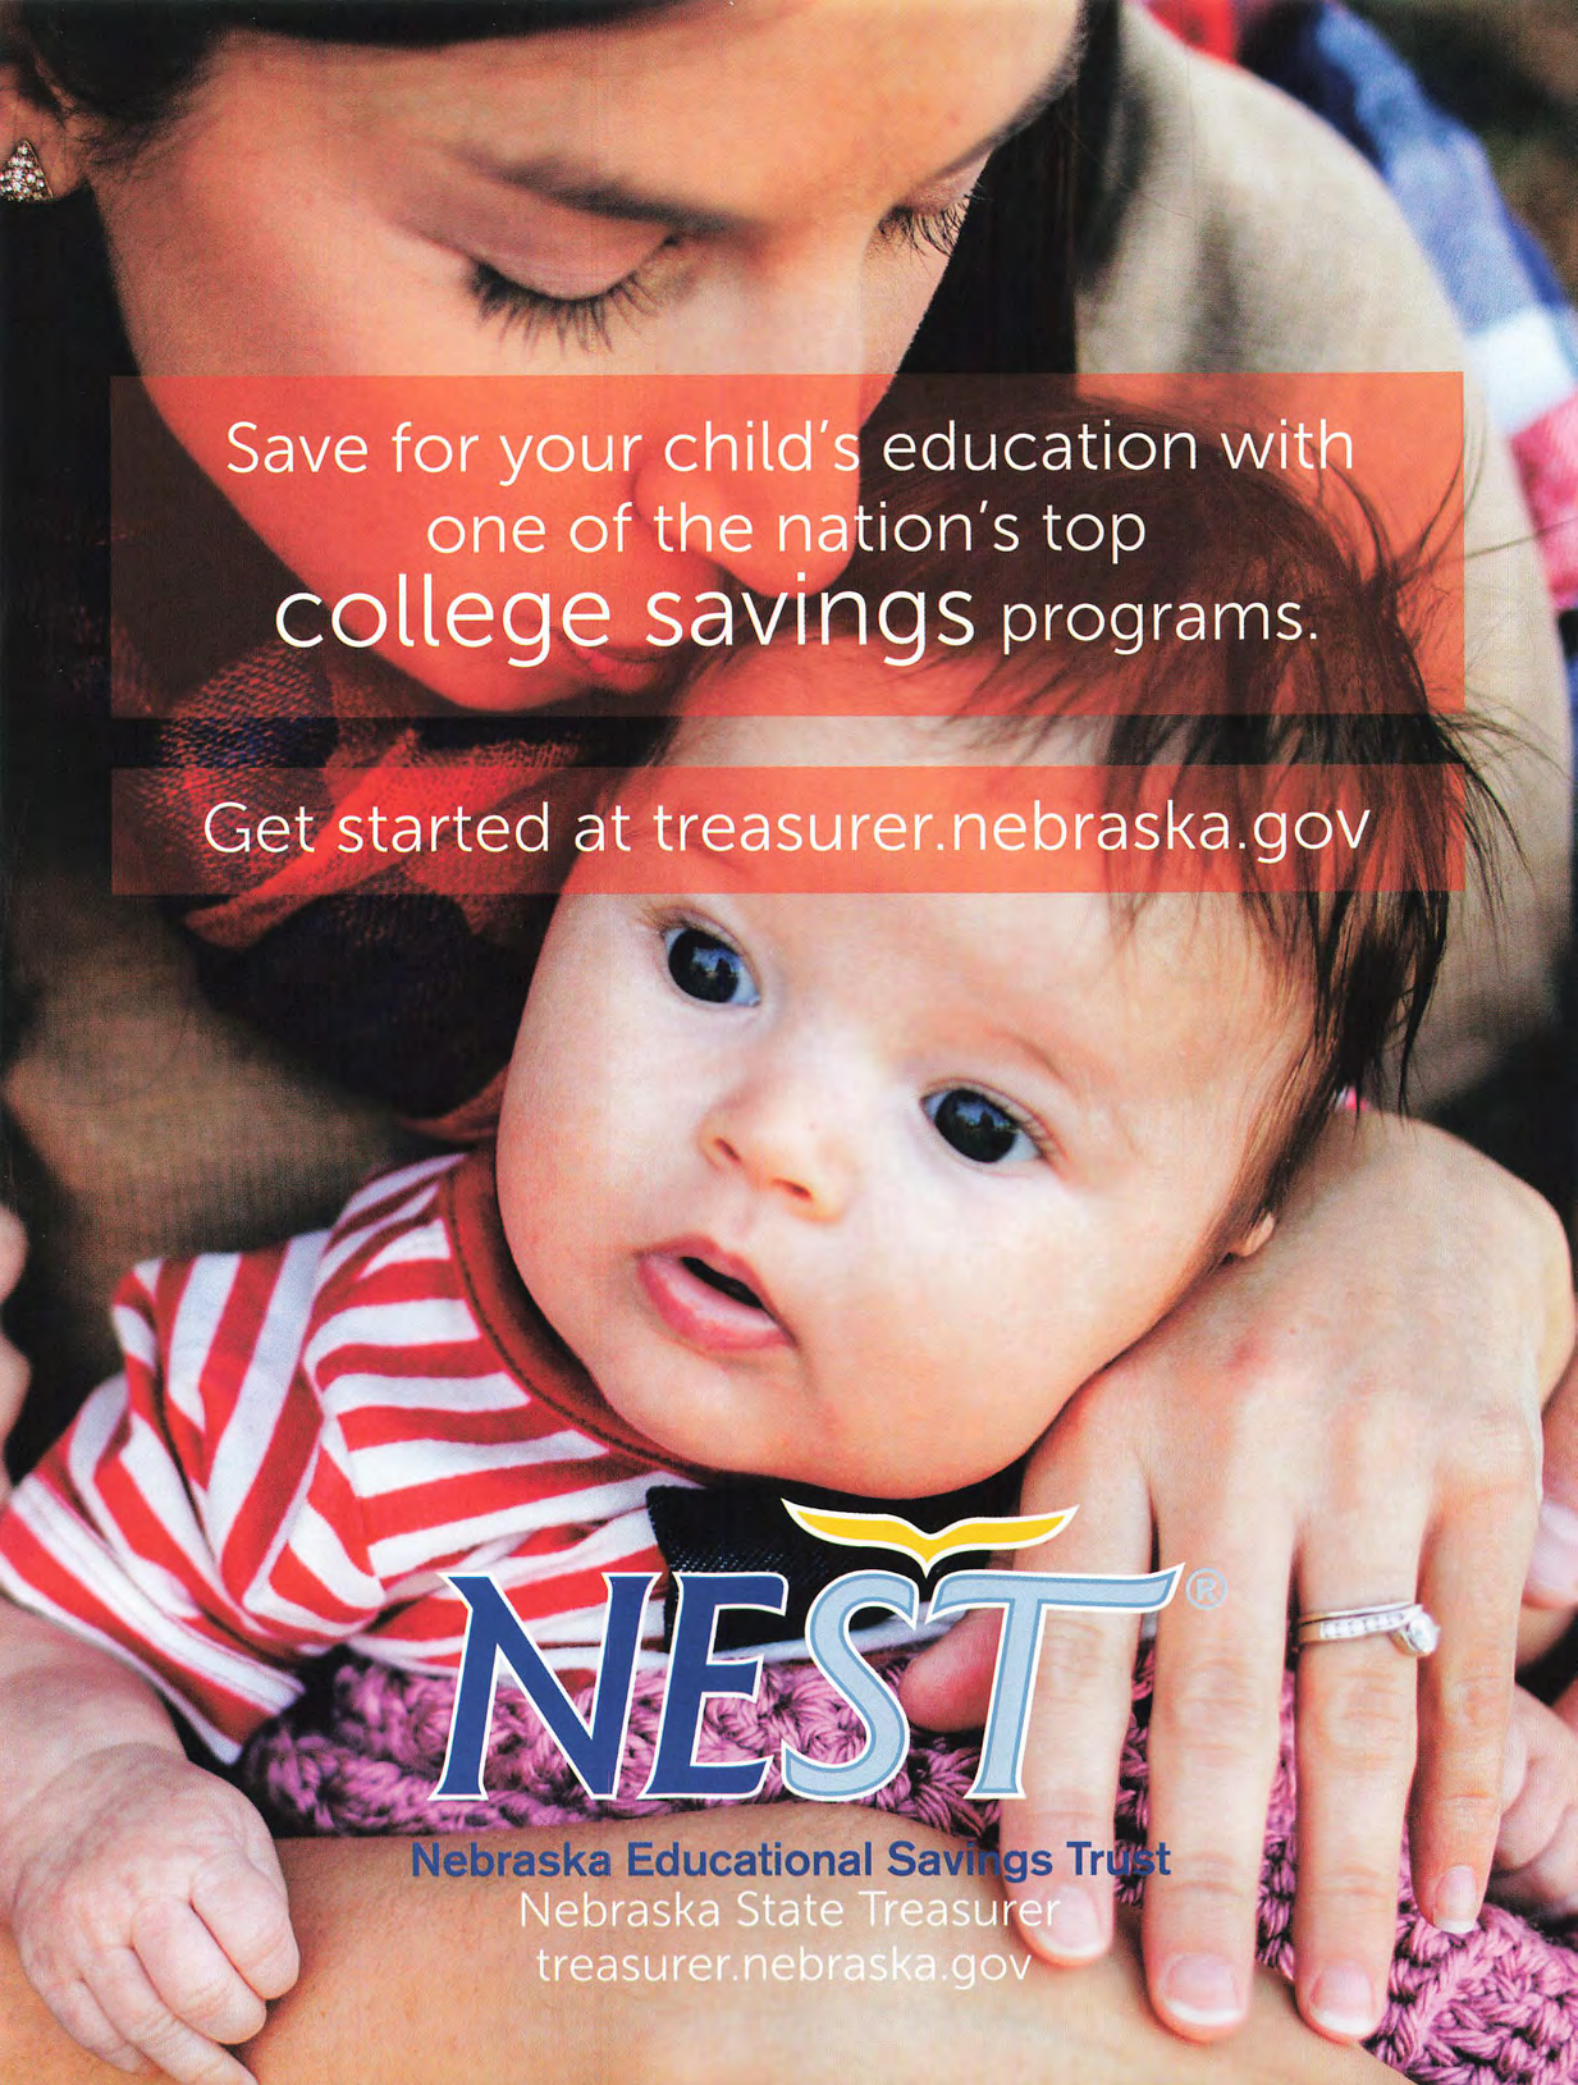

What did you first think when you were being recruited by Nebraska, and what made you want to be a Husker?
"My first reaction was 'where is Nebraska', 'what is this place'? I had never really heard about it until I got a USB drive that showed me all of this, and once I was watching that I was like 'oh, I gotta go out there and visit' and then thank God I did. I went out there and loved it and it pretty much made me want to come here."

What is the best memory of your Husker career?
"There are a couple. The Northwestern Hail Mary [in 2013] was a good one. The behind-the-back catch against Florida Atlantic, that one was a good one."

Who is your favorite football player of all-time?
"Probably Jerry Rice [Pro Football Hall of Fame receiver]."

What are your passions outside of football?
"I'm kind of a musical guy, I like piano and guitar."

When you are done playing football, what are your future career plans?
"I'm currently working on a degree in business management and eventually I want to own my own company down the road."

2016 NEBRASKA ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME CLASS

An illustrious group of seven distinguished student-athletes were enshrined in the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame on Friday. The class will be recognized at today's game and their names will be permanently displayed in the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame Plaza.

Heather Brink (Women's Gymnastics, 1997-2000): Heather Brink helped the Huskers to three Big 12 Conference titles and three NCAA Super Six appearances from 1997 to 2000. She played the lead role in Nebraska's team success, as she was a two-time individual national champion, an 11-time All-American and an eight-time Big 12 champion. As a senior, Brink won the Honda Award as the nation's top women's gymnast, and she was also named the Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, becoming the first Husker to be honored as the conference gymnast of the year. At the 2000 NCAA Championships, Brink won the all-around and vault national titles to lead Nebraska to a fourth-place finish, tying for the best finish in program history. The first Husker to win an all-around national title, Brink earned All-America honors on all five events as a senior. At the completion of her career, Brink owned eight of the top 10 all-around scores in school history. She also became the first Husker gymnast to score a perfect 10.00 on any event, recording three perfect scores on vault. Brink earned her degree in business administration in 2001, and she served as an assistant coach for the Huskers (2011-14) before being promoted to associate head coach in 2015.

Phil Cahoy (Men's Gymnastics, 1980-83): Phil Cahoy was instrumental in Nebraska winning four consecutive NCAA team titles during his illustrious career from 1980 to 1983. Cahoy was a four-time individual national champion and a 10-time All-American. He finished in the top five in the all-around in each of his four NCAA Championships, earning the distinction as a four-time All-American in the all-around. In 1980, Cahoy won the horizontal and parallel bars titles, and he repeated as a champion on both events the next season. At the 1980 NCAA Championships, Cahoy joined Jim Hartung – a fellow member of the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame – as one of the first two Huskers to win an individual national title. Cahoy also represented the United States at the 1980 Olympics, and he was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame in 2001. Cahoy earned his bachelor's degree in biological sciences from Nebraska in 1984, and he earned his medical degree from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in 1990. Cahoy is currently an orthopedic surgeon in Grand Island, Neb. Two of his sons, Steven and Kevin, are pole vaulters for the Husker track and field team.

Janet (Kruse) Sellon (Volleyball, 1988-91): Janet Kruse epitomized the term "student-athlete" during a decorated career for the Husker volleyball program from 1988 to 1991. On the court, Kruse was a three-time All-American, earning first-team accolades in 1989 and 1990 and second-team honors in 1991. The first three-time All-American in program history, Kruse ended her career with the third-most kills in school history, and she currently ranks 10th in program history with 1,269 kills. Kruse's play helped the Huskers to four Big Eight titles and a pair of National Semifinals appearances, including a runner-up finish in 1989. In the classroom, Kruse was a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, and she was named the Volleyball Academic All-American of the Year in both 1990 and 1991. Kruse was also the recipient of a prestigious NCAA Top 10 Award following her playing career. She earned her degree in biological sciences from the University of Nebraska in 1992 and is a family physician in Lincoln.

Nicola Martial (Women's Track & Field, 1993-96): Nicola Martial earned the distinction of being the first Nebraska female student-athlete to be an individual national champion, an All-American and an academic All-American during her illustrious Husker career. An outstanding triple jumper, Martial won three national championships in the event. She captured back-to-back titles at the 1994 and 1995 NCAA Outdoor Championships, while winning her lone NCAA indoor title in 1996. A six-time All-American, Martial swept the indoor and outdoor conference triple jump titles all four seasons of her career. A multi-time individual national champion and All-American, Martial also excelled in the classroom, earning first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades as a senior. Martial graduated from Nebraska in 1996 with a degree in political science and then represented her home country of Guyana that summer at the Olympic Games in Atlanta, Ga.

Nancy (Meendering) Metcalf (Volleyball, 1997-99; 2001): Nancy (Meendering) Metcalf earned multiple first-team All-America honors on the court and in the classroom while starring for the Nebraska volleyball team from 1997 to 2001. A three-time first-team All-American, Metcalf was also a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year and a two-time NCAA Regional MVP. She capped her career with one of the greatest seasons in program history as a senior in 2001, when she was a finalist for the Honda Award – presented to the nation's most outstanding player – and was also named the CoSIDA Volleyball Academic All-American of the Year. Metcalf helped lead Nebraska to a trio of Big 12 titles and two NCAA Semifinals appearances during her four seasons on the court, and she also played a role in the Huskers' national championship in 2000, when Metcalf redshirted following time spent training with the U.S. National Team. In the classroom, Metcalf was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection, and she earned an NCAA Top 10 Award. Metcalf ended her career with 13 school records, and she still holds Nebraska match records for kills (39) and aces (7). She earned her degree in advertising from the University of Nebraska in 2001 and continued her career following graduation, representing the United States at the 2004 Olympics.

Johnny Rodgers (Football, 1970-72): Johnny Rodgers was one of the most electrifying players in the history of college football. Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy Winner, Rodgers took home the prestigious trophy in 1972, when he was also named the Walter Camp Player of the Year. A two-time first-team All-American, Rodgers ended his career with NCAA career records for all-purpose yards (5,487), punt return touchdowns (7), kick return touchdowns (9) and yards per touch (13.8). He set more than 40 school records at Nebraska, including ending his career as Nebraska's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards. Rodgers helped Nebraska to a 32-2-2 record in his three seasons, including back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971. Following his career, Rodgers became the second Husker to have his number retired (20). He went on to be selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft, spending two seasons in the NFL. He returned to the University of Nebraska and earned his degree in broadcast journalism in 1997. In 2000, Rodgers was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Will Shields (Football, 1989-92): A member of both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, Will Shields is one of the greatest offensive linemen to ever put on a jersey. Nebraska's first scholarship football player from the state of Oklahoma, Shields helped the Huskers win 37 games, two Big Eight championships and three NCAA rushing titles in his four seasons. He was named a first-team All-American in 1992, when he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman. Shields earned his speech communication degree from the University of Nebraska in 1993 and one year later, Nebraska retired his jersey (75). A third-round pick in the 1993 NFL Draft, Shields enjoyed a 14-year hall-of-fame NFL career with the Kansas City Chiefs. Shields never missed a game during his career, playing in 224 games with 223 starts. A seven-time All-Pro, Shields was named to the Pro Bowl in each of his final 12 seasons. The 2003 NFL Man of the Year, Shields was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2015. He is one of three Huskers who are enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. Will's son Shavon was a four-year starter for the Nebraska basketball team who concluded his career in 2016 with a second straight first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honor.

DONOR SPOTLIGHT: JEFF & HEIDI JACKSON

PAYING IT FORWARD

Jeff and Heidi Jackson are lifelong Husker fans who have been generous supporters of Nebraska Athletics. After living in Nebraska for several decades, the couple now resides in Florida but are still avid Husker supporters.

Jeff and Heidi have been long-time donors to Nebraska Athletics, and they epitomize the Nebraska way in their humble, hard-working approach and in doing what they can to help people and especially student-athletes. They hope their investment will continue to develop further gifts to ensure Nebraska's place at the top college athletics.

Jeff was born in Wisconsin but grew up in Omaha, attending Omaha Westside High School before earning his degree in business administration from the University of Kansas. Although he now lives in Florida, Jeff lived the greater portion of his life in Nebraska, and he has been a football season-ticket holder for 44 years.

Heidi was born in Germany, but attended Omaha Burke High School before earning her nursing degree from the University of Nebraska. Jeff has one daughter, Jaime, and one son, Joel, and the couple has two grandchildren, Marin and Liam.

A successful businessman, Jeff served as an executive at American Laboratories, Inc. in Omaha. American Laboratories, Inc. was established in 1967 by Jeff's father, Jack, and William Phalen. As president, Jack Jackson built the business as a primary processor of products from beef and pork sources. Jack served as the chief executive officer of American Laboratories until retiring in 1992, when he turned leadership of the company over to Jeff.

STUDENT-ATHLETE EXPERIENCE FUND

There is No Student-Athlete Experience Like Nebraska

The Student-Athlete Experience is at the forefront of our philanthropic fundraising program that directly supports nearly 600 Nebraska student-athletes across 24 varsity sports. Nebraska Athletics works relentlessly to be the national leader in support resources and services for our student-athletes. We lead the way in academics and life skill support systems, facilities and staffing, as well as having a first of its kind performance laboratory. The Student-Athlete Experience Fund has paved the way for Nebraska Athletics to enhance its world-class experiences for student-athletes even further in academic services, life skills, athletic medicine, strength and conditioning, research, analytics, nutrition and dining services.

As we continue to be pioneers in providing these experiences for our student-athletes, we need your help more than ever as we work to recruit the finest student-athletes who are motivated to earn a college degree and compete for championships. For more information on giving to the Student-Athlete Experience Fund please contact the Athletic Development Office at 402-472-3111 or by email at nebraska@huskers.com.

UNL'S KEN PRICE HAS KEY ROLE IN IDENTIFYING RARE WHITMAN LETTER

As one of the world's foremost Walt Whitman scholars, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln's Ken Price can easily identify the handwriting of the famous 19th-century poet, essayist and journalist—from his unusual upstroke on the letter 'd' to the peculiar way he made the letter 'x' to a host of other signs that, taken together, clearly show evidence of Whitman's pen.

Office of Reseach

"It's something that, both holistically and specifically, you recognize when you see it," said Price, UNL Hillegass University Professor of American literature.

So when the head of the National Archives asked Price for his opinion on a newly discovered letter suspected to be in Whitman's hand, Price swiftly authenticated it. Whitman wrote the letter on behalf of a New Hampshire infantryman dying of tuberculosis in a Washington, D.C., hospital shortly after the Civil War.

"I've been working with Whitman manuscripts on a daily basis since 2000, (so) I am extremely familiar with his handwriting," Price said. "I have very little doubt about the authenticity of the letter."

The January 1866 note, found this spring in the archives, is among only three Whitman-scribed "soldier letters" known to exist. It will now be housed in a vault at the National Archives with other valuable documents.

Whitman often wrote letters on behalf of injured soldiers, and the discovery is important because of its rarity as well as its touching nature, said Price, the co-director of UNL's Center for Digital Research in the Humanities.

"Hospitals were very dangerous places in the Civil War, so his time spent visiting soldiers was courageous and generous. Few writers would have sacrificed such an enormous amount of time at the height of a literary career. His visits to the hospitals were acts of love that remain frankly inspiring."

The letter is now in the digital Walt Whitman Archive, a long-term effort by Price and others to edit Whitman's work on the Web.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION
In the event of an emergency where seating areas need to be vacated, direct your attention to the video boards, listen to public address announcements and follow the directions of stadium staff.

EVENT STAFF
Any event staff member will be able to answer general questions. When in doubt, ask to speak with an event staff supervisor.

FIRST AID (MEDICAL SERVICES)
The American Red Cross provides emergency medical services in the stadium and at first aid stations located in the southeast corner of field level, east stadium upper concourse, northwest concourse and west stadium club level of the stadium. The southeast and northwest aid stations will be staffed with Lincoln Fire and Rescue paramedics and EMTs to provide advanced medical care and facilitate any necessary transfers to area hospitals. Contact Red Cross volunteers, Boy Scout volunteers or stadium security personnel for assistance. The Red Cross cannot assist fans to and from stadium seating. City of Lincoln Police and Fire Chaplains are also available in the aid stations to provide assistance if necessary.

FOOD & BEVERAGE
Food and beverages from approved game day vendors selling on University grounds are allowed inside the stadium. Personal empty water bottles (plastic only) are allowed into the stadium for fans to be able to refill at the fountains inside. All other outside food and beverage is prohibited. Certain situations may arise, i.e. extreme heat, that initiate exceptions to this policy. The University and Athletic Department will communicate to the public if exceptions will be made.

PROHIBITED ITEMS
The consumption or possession of alcohol is not permitted on University of Nebraska premises and violation may prevent admission to a Nebraska Athletics event, removal from an event and jeopardize the violator's admission into subsequent events. Controlled substances, bags larger than security tubs, coolers, chairbacks, noise makers, glass bottles, cans, video cameras, banners/flags on poles and open umbrellas are also prohibited. Consideration of other spectators is expected. With the passage of the concealed weapons law in the state of Nebraska, fans are reminded that concealed weapons are not allowed on the UNL campus and are prohibited at all collegiate sporting events. At the discretion of game management, other items are subject to being prohibited. For a complete list of prohibited items, please visit Huskers.com.

RADIO
The IMG College Husker Sports Network produces and markets the live broadcasts for Nebraska football. Anchor affiliates are KXSP (590 AM) in Omaha, KLIN (1400 AM) in Lincoln and KRVN (880 AM) in Lexington. A list of affiliates can be found at Huskers.com. Sirius XM satellite radio will carry Nebraska games.

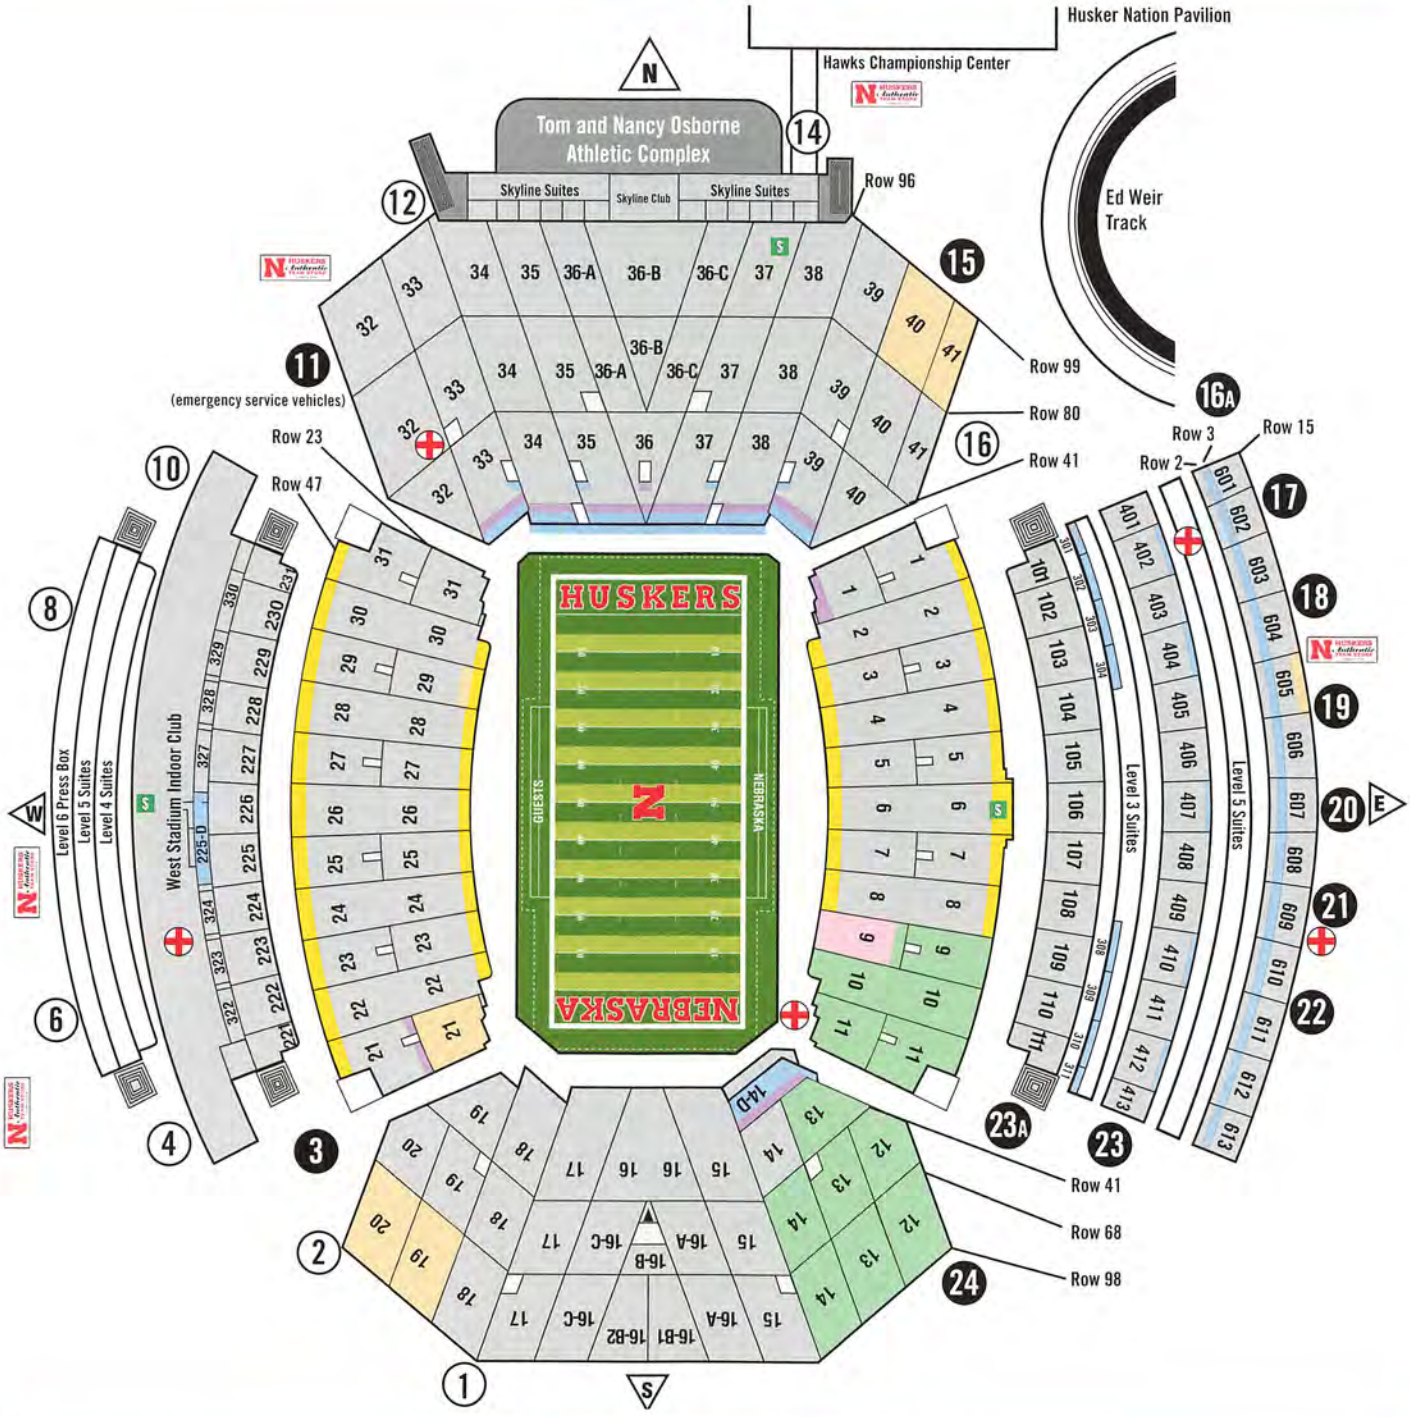

SMOKING
Smoking is NOT permitted in Memorial Stadium. This includes electronic cigarettes or other forms of electronic smoking.

SPORTSMANSHIP
The University of Nebraska promotes good sportsmanship and conduct among our alumni, students and friends. Inappropriate conduct, activity or any discourtesy should be reported to stadium personnel or the Athletic Events Office at (402) 472-1003. You may also utilize our text messaging service to report such complaints (see Text Messaging Service).

STORAGE
There is not a secure area for patrons to store any personal items inside the stadium. Permissible items stored at seating locations cannot impede fan traffic, i.e. strollers, walkers, blankets, etc.

TEXT MESSAGING SERVICE
For fan assistance, text to 69050 and start your message with UNLPD. Standard text message rates will apply. Texts are received by Stadium Operations and a response will be initiated.

UAVs (DRONES)
Special rules exist with UAVs on game days at M emorial Stadium. Please contact the local Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) office prior to operating a UAV at Memorial Stadium or in close proximity to obtain clarification regarding usage.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA SPIRIT SQUAD

The Nebraska Spirit Squad's involvement in the community and the athletic department makes it one of the most high-profile programs in the nation. The Spirit Squad is made up of three groups - Cheer Squad, Scarlets Dance Team and the mascots, Herbie Husker and Lil' Red.

Currently, the Nebraska Spirit Squad consists of 22 Cheer Squad members, 18 Scarlets and five mascot assistants. Along with academic and athletic events, Spirit Squad members participate in conditioning workouts, practices and team meetings around 10 hours per week. Last year, the squad made nearly 200 philanthropic appearances at community and state events.

Tryouts for the Spirit Squad are held during the spring semester. For more information on the Spirit Squad or to learn about tryouts, visit Huskers.com/spiritsquad or call (402) 472-0846.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA FIGHT SONGS

HAIL VARSITY

Hail to the team,
The stadium rings as everyone sings,
The Scarlet and Cream.
Cheers for a victory, echo our loyalty,
So on mighty men,
The eyes of the land,
Upon every hand are looking at you.
Fight on for victory,
Hail to the men of Nebraska U.

THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE NEBRASKA

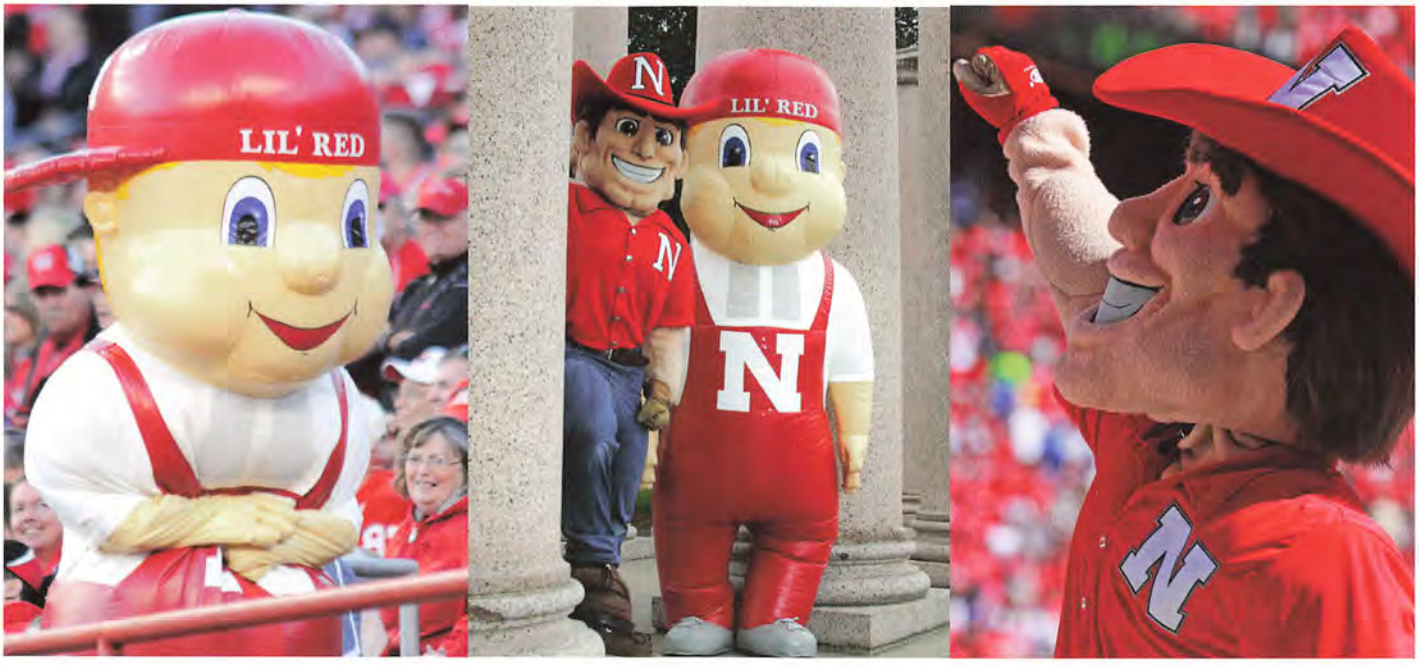

There is no place like Nebraska,
Dear old Nebraska U,
Where the girls are the fairest,
The boys are the squarest,
Of any old school that I knew.
There is no place like Nebraska,
Where they're all true blue,
We'll all stick together in all kinds of weather,
For dear old Nebraska U.

TAKE TIMEOUT
TO TALK ABOUT UNDERAGE DRINKING

Youth say they rely on adults in their lives more than anyone else to help them make tough decisions. Be the reason the young people in your life choose not to drink.

It's never too early to start talking with young people about the dangers of underage drinking.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Nebraska is well represented at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta. In December 2015, Trev Alberts will become the 17th former Husker enshrined alongside six former Nebraska coaches in the Hall of Fame. Former All-America tackle Ed Weir claimed the honor as the first Husker player enshrined, while coaches Fielding Yost and Dana X. Bible were also inducted the same year (1951). Coach Tom Osborne, inducted in 1998, is the most recent Husker coach enshrined in the hall.

Note: Years denote letters earned at Nebraska. Year in parenthesis denotes year of induction into the Hall of Fame.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln, chartered in 1869, is an educational institution of international stature. UNL is listed by the Carnegie Foundation within the "Research Universities (very high research activity)" category. UNL is a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU). The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Always a place of high ambition, UNL was one of the first institutions west of the Mississippi River to award doctoral degrees—the first was granted in 1896. The University of Nebraska established the world's first undergraduate psychology laboratory. The discipline of ecology was born here, and the campuses reflect that tradition, being recognized as botanical gardens and arboreta. An early institutional interest in literature and the arts provided the foundations for today's Prairie Schooner literary magazine, the University of Nebraska Press and the Sheldon Museum of Art, which houses one of the world's most significant collections of 20th century American art.

Today, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is one of the nation's leading teaching institutions, and a research leader with a wide array of grant-funded projects aimed at broadening knowledge in the sciences and humanities.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln is the intellectual center for the state of Nebraska, providing leadership in education and research. The citizens of Nebraska benefit from the knowledge and research generated by our faculty and students.

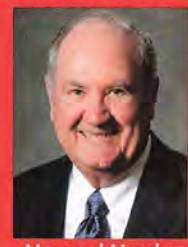

In 2015, the university celebrated the grand opening of Nebraska Innovation Campus, where private business partners connect with the talent of UNL faculty to transform ideas into innovations. At full build-out, NIC will be a 2.2-million square-foot sustainable campus with uniquely designed buildings and amenities that inspire creative activity and engagement. The core buildings now open include: Innovation Commons, the Food Innovation Center and the Greenhouse Innovation Center.

UNL's research expenditures totaled more than $278 million in 2014, the most recent fiscal year for which expenditure information is available. This total included nearly $94 million in federal research expenditures. The National Science Foundation accounted for 28 percent of UNL's federal research expenditures, followed by 15 percent from the Department of Health and Human Services and 12 percent from the Department of Defense. UNL's goal is to achieve $300 million in total research expenditures by 2018, with at least half coming from federal agencies.

Shawn Eichorst was recruited and hired by the University of Nebraska in 2012 and quickly displayed an incredible passion for the University and for its student-athletes as well as the State of Nebraska. As the leader of a tradition-rich athletic program with 24 intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 325 full-time employees, Eichorst has relied on a strong value system and a student-centered approach to lead the department. Nebraska's primary mission is to provide student-athletes with the resources and support they need to be successful in academics, athletics and life. The health, safety and welfare of student-athletes are priority one and the essence of every decision made at Nebraska. Since Eichorst arrived in Lincoln, resources and services in every student-athlete support unit have been reviewed, improved and enhanced, including academics, athletic medicine, life skills, nutrition, sports psychology, strength and conditioning and performance/research (i.e. Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3)).

Eichorst has continued to move Nebraska forward aggressively with several new initiatives to enhance the student-athlete experience. Beginning in the summer of 2015, Nebraska became the first athletic department in the country to offer laptop computers to every student-athlete and created a data analytics department. Husker student-athletes in all sports now receive four-year, full cost of attendance-based scholarships. Nebraska was also the first-known department of athletics to create a post-eligibility opportunity (PEO) program, where every Husker letterwinner who graduates and has exhausted his or her eligibility has an opportunity to pursue either an internship, study abroad or graduate school program valued at $7,500. Nebraska was also one of the first institutions to create a spring service abroad trip, taking a team of student-athletes and staff to Guatemala in 2015 and to the Dominican Republic in 2016.

Eichorst is in high demand and has made more than 500 public appearances around the state and country and his monthly radio show and "Connecting on Campus" online column provide opportunities to connect and share the incredible activities, initiatives and accomplishments happening at the greater University and in the department. As a member of the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team, Eichorst maintains a strong connection and collaboration between the University and athletics.

A highly respected national leader, Eichorst was appointed in 2015 to the Division I Football Oversight Committee. Most recently, Eichorst was named co-chair of the NCAA Division I Football Recruiting ad hoc working group. He also serves on the Big Ten Conference Program and Budget Review Committee. Eichorst was the first Director of Athletics from any conference to visit the Big Ten Conference-based Academic Alliance (formerly known as the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the Big Ten Academic Alliance in several areas, including Digital Humanities and head injury research.

Under Eichorst, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 325 and its nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17. More than 700 awards were presented at the 26th Annual Student-Athlete Awards Show—A Night at the Lied. In 2015-16, 109 student-athletes earned undergraduate or graduate degrees and the Big Ten Conference honored 209 Husker student-athletes with Academic All-Big Ten awards. For the first time in school history, all Nebraska teams had an NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 960 or higher and the overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 86 percent is the highest in program history. In addition, seven Husker teams (women's basketball, golf, gymnastics, softball, tennis and volleyball and men's tennis) had a GSR of 100 percent as reported in the fall of 2015.

During Eichorst's tenure, Nebraska has won three NCAA team Championships, increasing its total to 27. In 2012-13 and in 2014-15, the Nebraska women's bowling team earned the program's fourth and fifth NCAA titles, while the Husker volleyball team won the 2015 NCAA Championship, the program's fourth national title.

In 2016, the Husker men's track and field team swept the Big Ten Indoor and Outdoor Championships and 14 Nebraska teams competed in NCAA postseason action, including bowling, football, volleyball, women's swimming and diving, wrestling, softball, baseball, men's and women's gymnastics, rifle, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field. In 2015-16, Nebraska produced 41 All-Americans who won 49 national awards, including 21 first-team honorees.

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions – and the first Big Ten program in history – to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Additionally, Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

Nebraska's fan support continues to be unparalleled in college athletics. In 2015-16, top 15 national rankings for average attendance were reached across 10 sports—football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, wrestling, soccer, softball, baseball and men's and women's gymnastics. Nebraska is the only school in the country to rank among the top 15 nationally in both football and men's basketball attendance and in volleyball and women's basketball. A tribute to loyal Husker fans, two sports lead the nation with consecutive home sellout streaks. Football has 347 consecutive sellouts and volleyball has 204 consecutive regular-season sellouts.

Under Eichorst's leadership, Nebraska continues to focus on improving its facilities and the game-day experience at all athletic venues. In August of 2015, Hibner Stadium and Barbara Hibner Field for soccer and the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center were completed. A new center-hung video board and sound system was installed in the Devaney Center in 2015 to improve the game-day experience for volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics. In 2014, the largest wireless network system at a college football stadium in history was installed in Memorial Stadium, along with a state-of-the-art sound system. In the summer of 2013, Memorial Stadium expansion added the innovative NAPL inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). That same year, Nebraska's men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home for Husker volleyball, wrestling and the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. He hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, who led Miami to the NIT Second Round in his first season and ACC regular-season and tournament titles as well and the NCAA Sweet 16 in his second. The women's basketball program posted its highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. The Miami women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The Hurricane women's soccer team posted its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Athletics Director at Wisconsin. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the department's daily operations, as well as the men's basketball program under the direction of Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez.

From 2004 to 2006, Eichorst served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Administration at South Carolina, overseeing the department's daily operations, as well as the football and baseball programs under legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier and Ray Tanner, respectively.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10-percent finishes in the NACDA Directors Cup, one NCAA team title and two NCAA runner-up finishes. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America selections.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and in 2015 was awarded the Distinguished Alumni Award for Professional Achievement. He earned a law degree from Marquette Law School in 1995, practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999 and is a past member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors and in 2006, Marquette awarded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year Award. He is also a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee.

Shawn and his wife Kristin have three sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett.

WELCOME.

You've come to a place like no other.

Whether you're here today to cheer on the Huskers or the visiting team, you're part of something special at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln.

We're Nebraska's only Land-Grant comprehensive research university. Where 6,400 faculty and staff work to improve the lives of every person on the planet. And where more than 25,000 students pursue their Big Ten dreams of leading in an ever-changing global society.

From our world-renowned work in growing more food while saving precious water and soil, to shaping the vision for research and outreach in early childhood development and education, the people of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln are, at their core, collaborators and contributors.

With your support and encouragement, we are touching lives in Nebraska's 93 counties, influencing progress across the nation, and changing the world for the better. That's the true meaning of Husker Power.

There is no place like Nebraska... GO BIG RED!

A WELCOME TO HUSKER FANS FROM PRESIDENT BOUNDS

There's nothing like fall in Nebraska. It's a special season, full of traditions like Husker Football that bring Nebraskans together. Football is particularly special to me—because while we're successful on the field, what we're doing to support our student-athletes off the field is even more important.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA SHOULD BE THE BEST PLACE IN THE NATION TO BE A STUDENT.

What does that mean for our student-athletes?

- Students are at the heart of everything we do. We put their success and well-being first.
- The time student-athletes spend at NU should lay a strong foundation for the rest of their lives.

Nebraskans can be proud of NU's leadership in serving student-athletes. These young men and women are role models and ambassadors for the university and our state—in the classroom, in our communities and in athletics. I'm grateful to the coaches and staff who serve daily on their behalf.

> The University of Nebraska should be a place where all students, regardless of their background, can succeed. Where they can grow. Where they leave with a new outlook on the world.

Thanks to our fans for your support of the Huskers and the University of Nebraska. Go Big Red!

Hank

BUILDING A
BETTER TOMORROW.
At the University of Nebraska, our focus is on creating a better future. From educating our teachers to bringing college within reach for more students. From battling cancer with research to keeping our country safe. From feeding a growing global population to making Nebraska the best place in the nation to be a baby. We're here to support our state and its people—and through them, impact the world.
